

Make the Old Car Look Like New!

Give it a finish that will start bright and stay bright—you can do it yourself. For this purpose we suggest Valspar Enamels—a combination of the finest pigments carefully ground in the famous Valspar Varnish itself.

VALENTINE'S VALSPAR ENAMEL

Sun, rain, mud, dust, gasoline, oils—even boiling water from the radiator—will not dim its fine lustre. Easy to apply, there are twelve beautiful colors to choose from.

Mrs. A. C. Fowler was guest of honor this week at two delightful afternoon functions given prior to her departure for Smithers in the near future. On Monday the members of the W.A. to the Anglican church entertained in her honor at the home of Mrs. T. J. Marsh and on Tuesday she was the guest of the Ladies' Guild of the United Church at the home of Mrs. Wm. Allan. On both occasions sincere regret at the departure of both Mr. and Mrs. Fowler was expressed and appreciation of their interest in church and Sunday school work was voiced. Mrs. Fowler was the recipient of dainty little gifts from both societies as a slight token of appreciation of her interest and assistance in the work of the societies. Refreshments were served on both occasions and on the latter, it being Mrs. Fowler's wedding anniversary, the tea table was centered with an artistically decorated bride's cake. Vocal and instrumental music formed an interesting part of the second afternoon's entertainment. Both affairs were largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mist and two children returned to their home in Terrace on Sunday after having spent the past winter visiting with friends in England.

Owing to confirmation services being held on the regular meeting night, the May meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association will be held at the school house on Wednesday, May 11, instead of Thursday, May 12.

Mrs. J. Downing went to Shames on Sunday to visit her husband who is at present stationed there.

The finance committee of the Diamond Jubilee celebration met on Tuesday night at the home of O. T. Sundal and drafted a number of resolutions dealing with the financing the local celebrations, these to be submitted to the next general meeting for approval.

The ladies' guild of United Church have arranged to hold their meetings every second Tuesday during the summer months, alternating with the W.A.

SMITHERS

W. J. Jackson, vice-president of the Alberta Co-operative Wheat Producers, Ltd., will arrive in the district this month and will address a meeting of Wheat, Pool members at Telkwa on May 23.

The Smithers town council at its meeting last week had another bill from the Children's Aid Society seeking payment for the maintenance of the Belknap children during March. The society is being informed that the council accepts no responsibility for the account.

An important strike of ore again brings the Harvey group of claims in the Babines into the limelight. Mr. Harvey came down from the mine last week with three fine samples of the new ore, showing uniform values of copper and an average of $75 per ton in silver with small gold values.

The Smithers town council has gone on record as favoring some encouragement in the work of beautifying the town by way of improving the boulevard strips set out in a recent bylaw. Where such work is undertaken by residents the town will co-operate by making the road section presentable.

The Smithers District Board of Trade will probably start a drive with a view to having an adequate federal office building built here.

The pheasants secured from the Game Conservation Board about a month ago were released last Sunday. A special appeal is being made by those responsible for bringing the birds here that everything to be done to protect them.
