TRIBUTE PAID TO PRESIDENT

WOMEN'S CANADIAN SUCCESS LAST YEAR ATTRIBUTED TO ENERGY AND PERSONALITY OF MRS. McMORDIE

ANNUAL REPORT

Mrs. G. A. Woodland is New President With Mrs. McNaughton and Miss Mills Vice

"I feel justified in saying the Women's Canadian Club has had the most successful year since its formation and, without doubt, much of the success has been due to the energy and personality of our president, Mrs. S. P. McMordie," said the annual report of Mrs. Adam Mackie, retiring secretary of the local Women's Canadian Club at the annual meeting in the City Hall last night. "She has been untiring in her efforts to secure speakers and to promote the general welfare of the Women's Canadian Club." The year had been very successful, the report stated, in two ways—first, on account of the speakers that had been obtained to address the club and, second, because of a great increase in membership.

Mrs. Mackie's report outlined the activities of the club during the year. There had been six speakers before the club during the year—Dr. H. L. Keenleyside of Vancouver; Prof. W. C. Keirstead of the University of New Brunswick; Hon. H. A. McKeown, chief of the board of railway commissioners; Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald; Graham Spry, national secretary of the Association of Canadian Clubs, and Her Excellency, Viscountess Willingdon, wife of the Governor General of Canada. At all the meetings, the president had been in the chair.

It was hoped this year, the report stated, to entertain and hear a number of distinguished visitors from the East. The club had been requested to aid in the observance of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation and, in that connection, had distributed framed pictures of "The Fathers of Confederation" to the city schools as follows: High School, 3; Borden Street school, 5; St. Joseph's Academy, 1; Japanese Mission, 1; Booth Memorial School, 7; Seal Cove School, 1; Annunciation School, 1. Another picture was presented to the public library in which the club had established a shelf devoted to Canadian literature and history.

The report stated that the club now had a membership of 105, including thirty-five new members enrolled during the past year.

BRADY URGES IMMIGRATION

look. Prince Rupert was one of Canada's great ports but it could never develop until the hinterland developed. They must provide material for shipmen overseas. Progress should be in their thoughts first and last. He urged the people here to step out and learn about the country in which they lived. The hinterland should be teeming with men and women developing the products and providing material for shipment from the port. The people here should force the issue of the Peace River Railway. He had listened for hours to the evidence given before the commission and although the report was adverse to opening up the country at present there was a lot of opinion expressed favoring the present development. He urged that people here get the facts and then get together and focus on the development of this port.

Mr. Brady was thanked by George Rorie, who presided for the occasion.

Bruce Stevens, who sailed last night for Vancouver to represent Prince Rupert High School in the B.C. Oratorical contest, was given a great send-off by his fellow pupils. To the blare of a big drum, he was wheeled in a wheelbarrow to the dock, cheering boys and girls marching four deep as his body-guard. Bruce is expected to give a good account of himself at Vancouver.
