In Russia Because of Abolition Church and Civil Ceremonles

LENINGRAD, Russia, April 4.-Trial marriages are becoming increasingly numerous throughout Russia, due to ceremonies.

In many instances here men and women were married one week, becam and promptly obtained divorces so second trials with other persons could marriage code has been in effect, the Leningrad alone has decreased 75 cent, while the number of divorces has increased by 80 per cent, the daily average being about fifty-seven.

The sharp decline in marriage is ttributed to the new regulations exempting newlyweds from registering their union with the state, common-law marriages being sanctioned. The inwith which unions can be dissolved. The guardianship of children does not appear to be a serious problem. For example, one woman with five children made no protest. "What shall we do with the children," asked the divorce clerk. "He can take the two boys," said the woman sharply, pushing the youths toward her husband. 'They'll prebably
