

Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

WALLACE BEERY AS BASEBALL PLAYER

Former "Heavy" Parodies Drama For Comedy in "Casey at the Bat"

No matter who lands on top of the heap in this year's baseball race, fans will never be able to forget the big game of 1890.

New York was playing Pittsburg and things looked bad for Gotham. The crowd had about given up both hope and game to the smoky city when a great cry arose. Casey, heaviest hitter in the league, was advancing to the plate. Eye-witnesses of that memorable occasion will describe the expression which passed over the face of the Pittsburg pitcher. Here, where he thought that everything had been "wiped up," was another obstacle to overcome. The crowd yelled and implored Casey to repeat his usual performance, to knock out a homer and save the day. Hats were tossed in air. Men who wild and excited, begging, imploring, until Casey tipped his cap and raised a hand. If a pin had dropped, the echo would have rebounded. The pitcher wound up and tossed a ball. Casey scornfully let it fly by and the umpire calmly said, "Strike one." The bleachers cried, "Lynch him," but Casey quickly killed them. Another strike flew past. The mob sat on edge, waiting for the third ball, which would never reach the catcher's mitt. All outfielders hurried to the furthestmost points, right up against the distant fences. Then a bomb burst. The third delivery was a strike and Casey was out. Pittsburg won the game!

That's one of the big scenes in Wallace Beery's comedy "Casey at the Bat," which was shown last night and is being repeated here tonight.

Winners of prizes at whist were:

Gentlemen—1. G. Brochu; 2. D. C. Schubert; 3. Ben Lipson.

Man in the Moon

LOVE is blind but the neighbors are not.

IT is a curious fact but it is more interesting to hear about ten people being killed in British Columbia than ten thousand in China.

JAY walking is just another expression for hoping the hospital.

IT seems years now since we first heard that jam was dying. It was about the same time we heard that women were growing longer hair and wearing longer dresses.

ALAS poor jam
We mourn your fate
Your demise saddens us of late.
To show our love,
Perhaps we'll meet
In heaven above.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

SEPTEMBER 24, 1917.
D. Peterson, local representative of the Peterson-Pels Co., returned to the city last evening from Vancouver with his bride, a former Winnipeg lady.

Carl Thompson, only in his teens, went out with his father to Port Edward yesterday and laid low a 150-pound buck.

Rev. Father E. M. Bunon called this morning for Vancouver where he will be consecrated as bishop of Northern British Columbia and the Yukon.

PARENT TEACHERS FIRST MEETING OF SEASON ENJOYED

The opening meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association with Mrs. Boddie in the chair proved a very interesting one. After the business of the evening had been completed Mrs. J. C. Brady read in her usual accomplished manner Fenimore's Enoch Arden. The musical numbers were by the Misses Lawrence whose duets on violin and piano were much appreciated.

At the close the party adjourned to the domestic science department where refreshments were served.

LARGE CROWD OUT TO THE RINK LAST NIGHT

There was a large crowd out last night at the skating rink, a number of the old timers who have not been on the floor for a long time returning to the game.

The rink has been opened for a week or more and the number attending has been steadily increasing.

SPORT CHAT

With the big heavyweight championship fight at Chicago now over, the eyes of the North American sporting world will now turn to the wind-up of the National League baseball activities and the World Series which, it was announced yesterday, will open in the National League city winning the pennant. There is little if any doubt now as to where the senior league flag will hang this year though there is still a very remote chance for either the New York Giants or the St. Louis Cardinals to rise above the smoke of the Pennsylvania coal town. Apparently, the majority of baseball observers here it doped out that the capturing of the world's championship is going to be a cinch this year for the Yankees. Certainly, their remarkable season's play would make it look so. If the powerful aggregation of Gotham stars do not cop of the honors this year, it will indeed look as if there must be a fly in the ointment somewhere. Most of the fans would like to see the Pirates win but there are few courageous enough to seriously hope that they will.

The huz and cry that went up about the Chicago battle between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight crown being fixed, from the looks of things, had little if any foundation in fact. Those boys socked each other too hard Thursday night to be "kissed" or "played" in any game to "rob the suckers" such as Chicago has seen in the course of its hectic history. They can talk about their being no kick in a ten-round battle but, the large majority of those who were lucky enough to have been in attendance at the "battle of the age" will probably agree that there was plenty enough kick and action in Soldiers' Field the night before last. It will be interesting to hear the impressions of those from the neck of the woods who attended the battle which, incidentally, took place one year to the day from the night at the Philadelphia Sesqui-centennial when Tunney first copped the crown.

ODDFELLOWS' SERVICE HELD LAST EVENING

Ritualistic Rites Performed Over Body of Sidney Marsh in B.C. Undertakers' Chapel

An Oddfellows' ritualistic service was conducted last night at the chapel of the B.C. Undertakers over the body of the late Sidney Marsh who died in the city recently. Those taking part in the service included Rev. A. Wilson, J. O'Kelly, noble grand of the local lodge, and R. Wood, chaplain. John E. Drvey presided at the organ and the crowd of mourners fully took up the capacity of the chapel.

The remains are being forwarded on this afternoon's train to Terrace where interment will take place tomorrow.

Why Gum-Dipped Mileage Costs Less "Per Mile"

The demand from car owners for Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires has given Firestone Dealers a large increase in volume that enables them to sell these tires to you at the lowest prices in the history of the industry.

The Firestone Balloon Tread, scientifically designed three years ago, and unchanged today has the wear resisting qualities that give thousands of extra miles.

This tread must be placed on a carcass that has the qualifications to withstand terrific flexing. The Firestone carcass is made of cords dipped in rubber solution which not only saturates and insulates every fibre of every cord, but unifies sidewalls with carcass, eliminating any possibility of separation under the extreme flexing of low-pressure.

The Firestone Dealer in your locality will gladly explain the Gum-Dipping process, the scientifically designed tire tread, and other advantages that only Gum-Dipped tires can give. See him today.
