YACHT RACES BEGIN TODAY

Fisher Cup Being Competed for at Toronto by Canadian and American Boats

OTHER BIG EVENTS

Three Weeks of Contests in Efforts to Carry off Well Known Trophies

TORONTO, July 19.—The international yacht race for the Fisher Cup commences today between American and Canadian boats on Lake Ontario. This will be followed by the George Cup race on July 27; the Freeman Cup race from Cobourg to Kingston, on August 1; the Lake Yacht Racing Association regatta at Kingston, August 4-6, and the Emerson Cup race for dingys at Rochester, on August 16.

TWO ENTRIES ONLY

Since 1906 the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, of Toronto, has held the Fisher Cup and this year the trophy is being defended by the Cara Mia, skippered by T. K. Wade with the Alloede, of Rochester, skippered by John Taylor or Lorenzo Mabbette, as challenger. This is the oldest yachting event on the lake, having been first contested in 1874. It will be sailed on a 21 mile course off the Toronto Island.

The George Cup race, while a junior event with only 20 years of history behind it, is of paramount interest this year because the trophy is at present in the hands of the trustees. It was awarded to the Acadia, Royal Canadian Yacht Club, last season after the Crescent Club's Kathea II. had been disqualified and was returned by the winners to the committee. In addition to these two famous yachts, entries from Kingston, Ont.; Rochester, N.Y., and Watertown, N.Y., are listed for the race.

REGATTA AT KINGSTON

The Freeman Cup race is an exciting preliminary to the big regatta at Kingston, August 4-6. A large number of the yachts taking part in the regatta will meet at Cobourg and battle for the trophy over the 100 mile course to Kingston. There will be in the neighborhood of 40 entries for the regatta and it is expected that at least half of these will race for the Freeman Cup. This cup is also now in the hands of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto, having been captured by The Stranger last year.

In addition to the Acadia and the Eleanor, the following Canadian yachts are listed in the entries for the Lake Yacht Racing Association regatta:— Vivia, Nayado, Scrapper, Lillian, Valerie Gardenia, Strathcona, Nutmeg, Patricia, Stranger, Italia, Blue Moon, Bluewater, and Seneca. The Class R yachts entered by American clubs include: Aophara, Vitesse, Rogue, Kathea II., Alice and Huskie. Half a dozen Canadian and American lake ports will be represented at this crowning event of the yachting season.

EMERSON CUP

On August 16 two Toronto skippers will be challengers for the Emerson Cup, now held by Rochester, Walter Windeyer and Charles W. Bourke having entered for the dinghy race to be sailed in the lake off the American city.
