NEW YEAR '28

Many Local Favorites and New Performers Will Participate in Event This Evening

A great crowd of local people plan to see the old year out and the new year in at the Westholme Theatre tonight where Prince Rupert Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will stage a midnight matinee commencing immediately after the regular picture program at the house.

Many local favorites and not a few new performers have been giving of their time and energy to make this big show a success and the hundreds of people who have declared their intention of going are assured of an enjoyable two hours' entertainment.

In addition to the twenty widely diversified acts of vaudeville, there will be one thousand noise making devices and cotton snowballs distributed at the stroke of midnight. Young 1928 promises to be ushered in in a manner seldem seen previously in Prince Rupert. The Elks' Christmas Cheer fund will benefit as a result of the affair.
