C.N.R. BALL WAS GREAT SUCCESS

OVER FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY PERSONS ENJOYED FESTIVITIES LAST NIGHT IN AUDITORIUM

Maintaining their reputation of previous years, the Canadian National Railway employees proved excellent hosts at their third annual ball in the auditorium last night. Many novel and interesting phases of railroad operation were introduced into the general decorative scheme which gave a distinctive character to the whole evening's program. Mrs. R. P. Ponder's orchestra discoursed excellent music from a platform which was decorated with a miniature telegraph line complete in every detail. A large bell from a Canadian National engine gave Master of Ceremonies Lionel Holtby opportunity to secure quiet while the various announcements were made. In the gallery a headlight acted as a miniature moon for the moonlight waltzes. A large painting, which decorated the rear of the hall, depicted a modern Canadian National train alongside of the old stage coach of former days. The work was executed by J. Edwards, an employee of the company here.

The Boys' Band in uniform was present for the early part of the evening and played the Grand March as well as several other pleasing selections. The general committee, of which W.

From Pay Envelope to Dividend Cheque

MONEY laid by in youth is worth double the savings of middle age. Many a rich man today bought the right to his dividends with the savings he made once out of his pay envelope. Anyone with determination can do the same.

The man who saves is the man with money.

FRANCIS NICKAWA BECOMES BRIDE AT VICTORIA CEREMONY

VICTORIA, Feb. 19.—(By Canadian Press).—A wedding of widespread interest took place in this city recently at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. J. Sippell, D.D., when Miss Frances Nickawa, who has won fame as a Cree entertainer, became the bride of Arthur Russell Mark, of Vancouver. The bride was attended by Miss Hannah Riley, with whom she has made her home since her early childhood, and Miss Margaret Bell, of Victoria. This remarkable young woman, of pure Indian blood, who has travelled part of three continents in her dramatic work was born at Norway House, on Hudson Bay. She was brought to the Methodist mission, an ailing child of but five years of age, and taken charge of by a devoted English lady, Miss Hannah Riley, who has been her Christian mother, and has lived and travelled with her in Canada, England, Australia and New Zealand. Some years ago Miss Nickawa went to live with Miss Riley in Vancouver. Miss Nickawa entered classes in dramatic art under the direction of Harold Nelson Shaw, and the result of her training has been the production of the best interpreter of Indian legend and folklore to be found on the continent. She has distinction of having appeared in recital before Queen Mary
