MOOSE DEFEAT TERMINAL CLUB

ANTLERED HERD QUALIFIES FOR DOMINION CUP SOCCER FINAL
 The final elimination game of the Dominion Cup football series between the Moose and Grand Terminals took place last evening before a large crowd of spectators, the former winner 4-1. The Terminals won the toss, and elected to kick downhill. The exchanges were very even from the start, the Moose showing better combination than their rivals, but meeting with a sterling defense. The Terminals were unfortunately to lose Dick Howe for a short period with a face injury, but their defence held out until five minutes from the interval when Erskine took advantage of a miskick by Harry Menzies to score easily.

the game on resuming, and after ten minutes play Sammy Currie hit the cross-bar with a free kick and Tommy Black headed through from the rebound. Shortly after the same player put the Moose three up with a capital shot. Following a period of mid-field play George Mitchell crossed nicely from the Moose right for Tommy Black to score again for the Moose. Nothing daunted, the Terminals fought gamely, and from a break-away Geo. Howe scored for them with a shot which gave Lobbie no chance. The Terminals had many opportunities to score after this, but shot poorly. At the other end Gurvich saved a penalty shot from W. Murray. The Terminals were dangerous on several occasions, but no further scoring resulted, and the Moose ran out worthy winners by four goals to one, thus qualifying to meet the Regiment in the final on July 2.
 For the Moose W. Murray delighted the spectators with his fine ball control, while Skinner defended well. Dickens and George Howe played finely in the Terminals forward line, while George Hill was the best half back on the field.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MR. AND MRS. SHENTON

Banquet and Dance to Celebrate Event and Presentations Made
 Celebrating the fortieth anniversary of their wedding Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Shenton were last night hosts to the Knights or Pythias, the Pythian Sisters, and a number of friends, something like twenty in all, at a banquet and dance in the Boston Hall. A great spread was enjoyed, toasts were drunk, a musical program was enjoyed and the host and hostess were the recipients of congratulations on the event and were given a number of presents, prominent among which was a silver cake basket from the Knights of Pythias and a fine electric lamp from the Pythian Sisters. Harry Daggett presided and all enjoyed the occasion to the utmost.
 The toast of the evening was that to the "bride and groom of forty years ago." It was proposed by George Johnston and responded to by Mr. Shenton. The program included piano solos by Misses Margaret Gilchrist and Mabel Iverson; a piano duet by Aletta McKinley and Mrs. P. Linzey; a violin solo by Miss Kathleen Bulger; recitations by Mrs. Leek, Bruce Stephens, and P. Linzey; vocal selections by Mrs. P. C. Miller, Mrs. Field, and Mrs. W. D. Moxley. Vaughan Davies accompanied at the piano and played for the community singing.
