B.C.'s Most Famous Candy Now Sold at Ormes

The fame of Purdy's Chocolates is now world-wide. Many years ago in a small way Mr. R. C. Purdy began to make the chocolates that bear his name. He made his chocolates fresh every day—used recipes that he himself discoverd after years of testing. His idea "caught on." People found in his chocolates a home made deliciousness—more appealing than any they had ever known. Purdy's business has grown with the years but the same rigid principles of making the chocolates prevail. Only selected stores are appointed agents. We deem it a privilege to be able to offer these chocolates to the people of Prince Rupert.
