PRINCE GEORGE

Wesley Gohen met with a painful accident last Wednesday night at Lindup when his ankle was badly crushed by the wheels of the cable car under which he fell. He is a patient in the Prince George Hospital where it is hoped the injured member may be saved.

A. E. Richards arrived here last week on a regular trip of inspection to Dominion experimental stations in this district.

The farmers of the districts surrounding Prince George will be able to supply all the hay requirements of the timber industry adong the line of the Canadian National Railway in these parts during the coming year. The hay crop this season has been unusually good and, where clover has been mixed with other grasses, it has been unusually heavy.

The log scale for Prince George district took a jump during the month of July, in which, 8,889,090 feet was recorded, but the total for the year to date of 36,968,844 feet is still 15,115,791 feet short of the 1926 cut. It is expected the scale for the remaining months of the year will be heavy but there is slight prospect of reaching the figures for 1926 which were the highest in the history of the district.

Lieut. J. S. McLean of Vancouver, territorial revivalist of the Salvation Army for Western Canada, and Major W. L. Carruthers of Wrangell, Alaska, divisional commander, have been holding a series of revival meetings here.

Dust killing preparation, laid on the streets of the city, has been having a severe test during the recent warm spell.

John Assman, whose former home on the railway flat at the foot of Edmonton Street was rendered an almost complete loss in a recent fire, has purchased the Dr. Richardson dwelling on Second Avenue, between Dominion and Quebec Streets, which he is having put in condition for residence.

The Prince George Tennis Club yesterday opened a championship series in which ladies' and men's singles championships for the year will be decided. N. P. Woodward has donated the trophy for the ladies' competition.

C. F. Freeman, city electrician, who is spending his vacation on a motor trip through the Pacific States, in a collision on one of the highways about sixty miles from Seattle with a large car, had one wheel and his running board sliced. No one was injured in the accident news of which was received here last week.

The five year old son of Mr .and Mrs. W. M. Henderson, Beaverley, died last week. Interment took place in the city cemetery on Wednesday.

A break in the long hot spell, which has been prevailing here recently, is expected soon. It will come as a great relief to farmers whose root crops are badly in need of moisture.

The Prince George Construction Co. expects to have the new McDonald Hotel on George Street completed by October 1.

Mrs. George Blair has returned to Prince George greatly improved in health as a result of an extended visit to points in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hurm and family left last week for a trip to the southern portion of the province. They expect to be away a month or six weeks.

Ald. George Kennedy received a wire last week announcing the marriage of his son, Harry, and Miss J. O. Wilson, both former residents of Prince George. The wedding took place in Venice, California.
