TIT-FOR-TAT AT VANCOUVER.

The Liberal government tried treating Vancouver with generosity and made a good job of it, too, but Vancouver did not change public mind with Fred Thomson proher voting complexion except to become more Tory than ever. In Prince Rupert there was somewhat of the same state of affairs when western luminary and his wonderful the Mackenzie King government did something for the port only to horse, Silver King, comes to the Westget a slap in the face for it.

Apparently Ottawa has now decided to treat Vancouver rough most famous cowboy rodeos in the by knocking their little five million dollar hotel in the head and country, was filmed as the back-ground other things. Here's hoping it doesn't follow similar tactics here for part of the action of "All Around for Prince Rupert is not quite out of the wilderness yet and we still might be able to find a little government aid handy at times.

SEWERS BADLY NEEDED IN CITY.

The Daily News knows of no very strong reason why the $35,- big shows in one.
