NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to-and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

Noonday Dinner is One of Features of Gathering of Natives Here

NOTABLE ADDRESSES

Prayer in Three Tongues at Oponing Yesterday and Address

One of the big features of the Church Army conference being held in the city this week is the noonday dinner served every day in the Cathedral Hall at which all the visitors are guests. This is an occasion for the visitors to get to know each other and to meet local people and is a valuable contribution to the big convention. Music is provided on these occasions by the visiting bands.

Yesterday the conference opened in the Cathedral with prayer by Rev. Oliver Thorne of Kincolith and the lesson was read by Captain Paul Mercer of the Naas River both in English and native language. Prayers were said by natives in three different native tongues, Nishgah, Hydah and Tsimpsean. The address by Rev. W. E. Collison, Indian agent, was delivered in two languages. This was followed by an address by Peter Venn of Metlakatla on 'How the Gospel came to Metiakatla." He told of the coming of Father Duncan to these waters, that missionary having been sent out by the Church Missionary Society in 1857. An inspiring address was given by Captain Michael of Aiyansh.

AFTERNOON

In the afternoon following the usual procession through the streets of the city, Rev. W. S. Cooper of Greenville presided. An overture by the Greenlille Band opened the proceedings, native prayers were said and the lesson was read in English by Paul Mercer. An address by Canon Rushbrook on the Origin of the Prayer Book proved extremely interesting. He told of its real value and how it was to be used. Tracing its history he explained that when Augustine came to England the year 597 he found the Church organized there and the Prayer Book in use in the Gaelic language. *

Addresses in the native tongue were given by Joshua Ridley of Kitwanga and John Nelson of Kitkatla and a discussion followed, presided over by Captain

At the afternoon gathering it was lecided to organize the various branches of the Church Army in this diocese into one unit by forming ommittee of the captains of all the branches with Rev. T. D. Proctor as chairman to go into the matters of uniforms and dress. This was moved by Alfred Adams and seconded by Captain aul Mercer. This was following out the suggestion made the day before

It was also moved by Captain Gamble of Kitkatla, seconded by Captain Peter Stewart of Kincolth and supported by Archdeacon Rix that a request be sent to the Church Army in London, England, asking them to send out a representative to make his headquarters at Prince Rupert under Archdeacon Rix to have charge of the whole organiza-

It was unanimously decided that the onference should be an annual event, the place and time of meeting to be settled by the committee later.

Captain Parson of Ocean Falls and formerly of London, England, gave an address on Church Army work, the theme being "To Bring Men to Christ and make the C.A. stand for Christ's Army."

EVENING

In the evening there was a parade led by the bands and addresses by the white captain and several native captains on Third Avenue. They then repaired to the Cathedral Hall where the meeting was led by Captain Casey.

The Kitkatla Band gave devotional selections and new revival songs were learned. An address was delivered by Methias Shaw of Massett and the meetling was closed by Archdeacon Rix. In the Cathedral a sacred concert was given, many being turned away, and there will be another concert this evening at the same time and place. Last evening's program included:

Metalkatla: Anthem-"God of My Salvation." Cornet Solo-"Song of Joy," by Job Nelson.

Anthem-"Praise the Lord."

A number of the accompaniments each day have been by Miss Marjorie Lancaster and she also played an overture on the pipe organ at the close of each concert.

At the close of the concert last inght a nice compliment was paid to Rev. T D. Proctor by Archdeacon Rix who said Mr. Proctor has been wholly responsible for the organization of this conference and it had been done very well. The conference is being continued all day today.
