Soviet Activities Designed as Preliminary to Universal Revolution---Sir Esme Howard

WORCESTER, Mass., March 26 .- A charge that Soviet Russia is inspiring the Chinese attacks on foreigners and hopes thereby to drive the British out of Asia as the first step in promoting a world Bolshevik revolution was made by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, in an address before the Metal Trades + and Employers' Association.

"If the British were driven out of Asia," Sir Esme said, "the Soviet believes it would not be difficult to get rid of other western powers from the continent and then an attempt would be made to promote revolution in Great Britain .--which would be the precourser of similar revolutions in all European countries." The speaker characterized "the real danger in Asia" as the control which the Russian Socialists were seeking in that continent.

Refugees From Nanking Are Sale; Activity of Labor Unions Intense

Ultimatum of naval commanders has desired result---practically all foreigners are now evacuated

SHANGHAI, March 26.-The Soviet flag flies over Shanghai north station, the terminus of the Shanghai-Nanking Railway, just outside the international settlement, today.

Chinese workers, who went on strike when the Cantonese entered Shanghai, are returning to work but most of them are armed and are endeavoring to run the railway with workers' committees without foreign aid. All native foreign born are also being dismissed. Intense activity is reported among the labor unions which are now entirely in the hands of the Reds.

All refugees at Nanking are safe. The* vigorous threat of the British and American navale leaders that the Cantonese position at Nanking would be bombarded unless foreigners were escorted to safety has been followed by the appearance of the refugees on the waterfront. Late Saturday it was reported that practically all the foreigners had been evacuated.

All the official and personal property of the consulates at Nanking was looted or destroyed by uniformed Nationalists. Combined action by British. - American and Japanese in connection with antiforeign excesses at Nanking and with a view to preventing repetition is under
