FROM THROUGHOUT IN-TERIOR AND ALONG COAST TO ATTEND THIS YEAR'S EX-

from various points along the coast have declared their intention of attending the Prince Rupert Exhibition next month, reports M. P. McCaffery, president of the Fair Board, who takes this as an indication that Prince Rupert is at last becoming the real centre of the district as it was originally hoped it would be. Year after year a small number of men have been intrumental in keeping up the interest the fair and their efforts are now coming to bear fruit by attracting larger and larger numbers of people from the district to come for the occasion.

The groundwork thus built up has

Man in the Moon

Monday is Labor Day. Perhaps you rgot it's a holiday.

My wife says she'd like to know where the holiday comes in for her. As long as I insist on having breakfast, lunch and dinner there's little rest for a poor oppressed housewife, How queer women are.

Say-let's go a fishing We'll whip the rippling brook And if we do not bring home fish We'll tell of the ones we took.
