Mining Development at Stewart Spread Over Large Area—Red Hill Group Looks Promising—Rich Samples From Mountain Boy

Mining development in the Stewart district is spreading out this season over a greater territory than ever before. Actual development is under way from Georgia River, eighteen miles south of Stewart, to well over the Bear River Pass, thirty miles north, where the Bear Pass Exploration & Mining Co. is developing 28 claims located last year by Henry Scovil and Cyril Jackson. This ground lies immediately east of the George Copper and has been long known to contain interesting mineral deposits. During the past winter the owners have been successful in forming a company for the purpose of financing development which has now been under way for the past two months. Surface exploration, preliminary to underground work, is now proceeding and the company is in a financial position to carry out extensive work. The showings carry values in silver and lead, $14 in value of both metals being found on the surface in one case. A tunnel has been started on this showing twenty feet above the creek level and a grab sample taken therefrom is said to have run 132 ounces in silver and 32 per cent lead. From an open cut on another showing, a value of 95.4 ounces silver was obtained.

Development has been commenced on the Red Hill Mining Co.'s property, near Barney's Gulch, about four miles north of Stewart. Camps are being put in and a small preliminary crew of men is employed in open cutting and stripping. The first work will be on a vein which is divided by a dyke paralleling the contact between the argillites and porphyries. John Hashti, who is in charge of the work, states that he has eight feet of ore on both sides of this dyke. His object is to open cut and strip this showing with a view to a program of diamond drilling being later undertaken. In addition to this, there are reported to be two other veins—one in argillites carrying $12 in gold and $4 in silver. The other has a manganese capping forty feet wide. The first vein mentioned, upon which work is now being carried, carries surface values as high as $56 and can be traced on the surface for some 3,000 feet.

Supplies are now being taken over the trail to the United Empire property, back of Stewart. The first mining to be done will be open cutting on the lower outcrop and this will commence immediately with a crew of six men. The vein, which is said by engineers to be exceptionally attractive, has been traced for a distance of 500 feet. The property is already well equipped with camps and mining equipment for hand work.

Good looking samples carrying gold, silver and copper to values of $54.44, $57.54 and $60.50 have been brought into Stewart from the Mayo property on Bitter Creek. The trail to the property has been repaired and development is about to commence. The company is strictly a local Stewart organization with William Tompkins, Clay Porter, John Hepson, Michael Misolevitch, R. W. Kennedy and W. R. Harner as directors. The concern owns five claims located on the north fork of Bitter Creek about three miles from the Bear River wagon road. The vein, from which the samples were taken, is reported to be fourteen feet in width.

Neil Matheison, who with a crew of five men has been doing exploratory work for some weeks on the Mountain Boy property on American Creek for W. H. Tolin and associates of Stewart, arrived in Stewart recently with some splendid looking samples of galena ore from the mine. Assays, it was expected, would run high in silver and lead. The outcrop where located is thirty feet up the face of a bluff and Mr. Matheison picked across six to seven feet of it without getting the footwall, so the width is not yet ascertained. The Mountain Boy property was one of the first groups of claims staked in the Stewart district about 1903 by Ward Brightwell and "Pap" Stewart, later being bonded to Sir Donald Mann. Considerable high grade float was found but the vein could never be located in place and Mann released the property when he was refused an extension of time on his option. The property lay idle for many years until, about two years ago, it was secured by Mr. Tolin under option. Since then, he and his associates have located some seven other claims adjoining the Mountain Boy. These the owners sold outright to the Pat Daly Mining & Development Co. of Montreal. Mr. Tolin has increased the crew on the property and anticipates doing considerable work.

Following a recent examination by Bert F. Smith, assistant manager of the company, and Mr. Manning, metallurgist, the Premier Gold Mining Co. has decided to commence work immediately upon the Silverado property which was acquired by it a few months ago. The property has been given the new name of Silverado Consolidated.

The management of the Woodbine Gold Mining Co. has decided upon an extensive development campaign including something over 10,000 feet of diamond drilling. Arrangements are being made to put the property upon a producing basis in a short space of time. A wagon road to the mine from 13-mile is to be built, following the trail which is on a good wagon road grade.

There was a very enjoyable whist drive and dance given under the patronage of the Mooseheart Legion in aid of the Boys' Band at Moose Hall last night which was well attended and proved in every respect a success. The band was present and gave a number of selections and Smaile's orchestra played for the dance.

Mrs. J. Slaggard was convener of the committee assisted by Mrs. A. G. Bartlett, Mrs. J. Preece, Mrs. S. Nelson and Mrs. N. Mussallem. Mrs. Charles Nickerson was at the door assisted by W. Glichrist. Gillis Royer was master of ceremonies.

Mr. Scott arrived yesterday from Vancouver where he has been receiving medical treatment during the past winter. While he has suffered the loss of an eye, Mr. Scott's many friends are pleased to find that, otherwise, he seems to be enjoying the best of health.

Passengers sailing this afternoon on the Princess Kathleen for Vancouver will include Thomas J. Cowan, G. Thompson, A. Fairnie, P. Stavkovin, C. F. Willson, Miss Marjorie Lancaster and Miss Molly Cross.
