NEW TOLMIE CABINET IS ANNOUNCED

B.C. LIQUOR ACT WILL BE REVISED ANNOUNCES POOLEY

New Provincial Cabinet Sworn in at Victoria and Take Over Administration of B.C. Affairs

VICTORIA, Aug. 22.—The new British Columbia cabinet chosen by Premier S. F. Tolmie was sworn in yesterday afternoon at three o'clock before Chief Justice Macdonald, administrator. The new ministers have to make permanent arrangements to reside in the capital and for that purpose a good many of them have already left for their homes. In the meantime Premier Tolmie, R. H. Pooley and Joshua Hinchcliffe are on hand here and have already taken over the work of their departments.

It is expected that none of the ministers will be officially opposed by the Liberal party although there is always a possibility that some individual may decide to contest a seat. The writs will be issued for the by-elections as soon as possible.

J. W. Jones is slated for the speakership when the Legislature convenes and H. D. Twigg will be his deputy. It will be a week or more before the ministers are all installed in their offices. The list of new ministers follows: Premier and Minister of Railways: Hon. S. F. Tolmie of Saanich.

- President of the Council, R. W. Bruhn, Salmon Arm. Agriculture, W. Atkinson of Chilliwack. Attorney General, R. H. Pooley, Esquimalt. Finance, W. C. Shelly, Vancouver. Education, Joshua Hinchcliffe, Victoria. Provincial Secretary, S. L. Howe, Richmond-Point Grey. Lands, F. P. Burden, Fort George. Mines, W. A. Mackenzie, Similkameen. Public Works, H. S. Lougheed, Dewdney. Minister without portfolio, R. L. (Pat) Maitland, Vancouver. Speaker, J. W. Jones, South Okanagan.

Women and Men Are Arrested at Mexico City Charged With Having Conspired Kill Calles and Obregon

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 22.—Seven women and five men, all Roman Catholics, are under arrest accused of having conspired to kill President Calles and late president-elect Obregon. Mother Superior Conception de La Lata is charged with being the chief plotter.

The police declare the conspirators planned to kill the two officials last April by pricking them with a poison pin at a dance.

Indian Boy Lost Both Hands and Head Injured in Explosion Skidegate Wharf This Morning

As a result of an explosion from handling dynamite Reg. Green, Indian youth of Skidegate Indian Village is in Queen Charlotte City hospital suffering from the loss of both hands and severe injuries to his head.

The explosion occurred after the Prince John had left the wharf at Skidegate this morning and in response to a call for help Captain Mabbs returned to the wharf, picked up the unfortunate boy and conveyed him to Queen Charlotte City Hospital.

The boy had apparently found some sticks of dynamite in a bathhouse and while handling them the explosion occurred.

CHARGED PAT WITH MURDER

ARRESTED BY MOUNTIES IN SASKATCHEWAN ACCUSED OF KILLING FARMER

REGINA, Aug. 22.—Seven years ago Joseph Germaine, a farmer of Squaw Valley, eight miles west of Craik, mysteriously disappeared from his farm.

Tuesday afternoon the Mounted Police arrested Samuel Pat and charged him with the murder of Germaine.

Early in 1921 Pat worked for Germaine and made an agreement with him to buy the farm, paying a sum of money on the purchase price. Shortly after that Germaine disappeared and no trace of him could be found.

Pat armed with the agreement of sale for the farm, took possession and continued to operate it.

INQUIRY INTO SINCLAIR CASE

In connection with the deportation of Charles Sinclair a court of inquiry was held yesterday with T. F. Pritch presiding.

The accused is resisting deportation to the United States. Though of Canadian birth he had taken out naturalization papers and a charge may be preferred against him of entering Canadian territory illegally. He has appealed his case and the local immigration authorities are now awaiting instructions from Ottawa.

REDUCE PACK ALASKA SALMON

JUNEAU, Aug. 22.—U. S. Fisheries Commissioner O'Malley declared yesterday that Alaska salmon pack was larger than the good of the industry would allow. He said he would approve a policy of cutting the pack to about four and a-half million cases annually.

The present pack in Alaska will be over five million cases.

AGENT GENERAL IN LONDON A GUEST OF KING AT BUCKINGHAM

Prize House in England Finshed in Western Hemlock Such as Grown Near Rupert

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The Agent General and Mrs. Pauline were the guests of Their Majesties at the Garden Party at Buckingham Palace on July 26, and on the following day Mr. Pauline attended the lunch given at the Mansion House by Lord Mayor of London to the fifty young prize winners who are proceeding to Canada under the Empire free travel and scholarship scheme.

Through the courtesy of Sir Giles Gilbert Scott, R.A., the eminent architect, the Agent General has been able to obtain advance photographs for publication of the prize house for which Sir Giles has been awarded the gold medal for 1927. The principal feature of the house is the beauty of interior which is largely composed of B. C. timber, the chief wood employed being western hemlock. Hemlock has not hitherto been recognized as a utility wood, but chemically treated it yields an effect which has been so generally admired that it is now obtaining wide recognition among architects and builders in Great Britain as a decorative accessory superior in character to much more expensive hardwoods.

Hoover Elaborates Program in His Second Campaign Speech to Aid Agriculturists of States

WEST BRANCH, Iowa, Aug. 22.—Herbert Hoover in his second campaign speech last night pledged the farmers of the country that if elected he would call upon the leaders of agricultural thought to join in a search for common ground upon which to act in solving what he regarded as the greatest economic problem in America.

He omitted reference to the increase of the tariff on farm products but elaborated upon federal financial aid to farmer owned corporations to help enable them to dispose of crop surpluses and also mentioned the development of the waterways outlets from the mid-west to the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic Coast.

WILL REVISE LIQUOR ACT

Pooley Admits That This Will Be Done—Government Taking Stock

VICTORIA, Aug. 22.—Attorney General Pooley agreed that the Liquor Act would receive early attention, when seen this morning.

Conservatives in touch with the party leaders have suggested that the act may be remodelled somewhat after the lines of the Quebec Act.

All the ministers except Shelly were at their offices this morning meeting staffs of their departments and receiving visitors.

"We are just taking stock now," Pooley expressed it.
