The grain export business of Prince Rupert is steadily developing. Last year about eight million bushels of grain was shipped through the terminal elevator and this year promises to greatly exceed that mark.

The City owns its Power, Light, Water Supply and Telephones.

The schools are excellent.

Roads are paved and concrete sidewalks are being laid.

INVOLVED IN PRINCE

There was only one case of any importance at the session of the Supreme Court held in Prince George this week with Mr. Justice D. A. MacDonald presiding, his being an action of F. W. Turnbull of Regina against Oscar iden, Fred Feterson and John Oman for a declaration that Turnbull was entitled to onequarter interest in four mineral claims known as the Eden Group near Hansard. The Turnbull laim was under a bill of sale from Eden, The Regina man laiming to have advanced $2,000 secure development and the crown granting of the claims. The require assessments, however, were not recorded and the Maims ran out, being subseuently restaked by Peterson, and Oman. The plaintiff contended that Eden was still the real ownof the ground.

After evidence had been heard in the case, adjournment was taken for written agruments, judgment being reserved. P. E. Wilson appeared for Turnbull, A McB. Young for Eden and W. O. Fulton of Prince Rupert for the efendants, Peterson and Oman.

Man in the Moon

At the McCracken lecture the other day Harold McCracken made a remark about tea hounds. The children could not hear him very well and one thought he said "beer hound." It was a hound anyway.

Canada is next door to a republic and almost a republic but let us hope her people will never be as ill-mannered as many re-

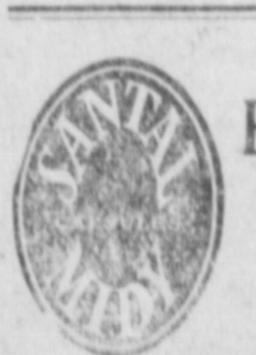

British people and Italians and Doukhobors are not the only ones not wanted in Canada. A great many of the immigrants the stork brings are not wanted either.

Now that war is formally outlawed, there will be bootleggers who will want to break the law.

"Now bid again you railroad hounds," remarks Foxie Tolmie as he sits on the P.G.E. rails and licks his paws.
