30 Casu now to mevent Perspiration Odour

Margaret's frocks were always charming, her headdress lovely and her skin beautifully white and smooth . . . she seemed literally a picture of personal refinement, but . . . perspiration odour! So offensive, yet now wholly needless.

Millions of refined persons have learned that to keep the skin wholesomely sweet and clean, it is only necessary to change to Lifebuoy Soap, for all Toilet Soap purposes.

This delightful aid to personal charm, gives every service you expect from the choicest toilet soap . . . and more.

Lifebuoy's antiseptic lather not only cleanses and keeps beautiful the skin, but actually purifies the millions of tiny pores and banishes perspiration odour from bath to bath.

And there is Price Penalty

The attractively packaged, orange red cake costs less than many "soaps" which being just soap, lack Lifebuoy's priceless purifying quality.

ST. LOUIS, PITTSBURG AND CIN-CINNATI MENACING SUPREMACY OF GIANTS-PHILADELPHIA AND CLEVELAND AFTER VANKEES

f (Epccial to Daily News) NEW YORK, May 9. In a general switch around in the west, both New York Big League beschall teams lost their games yesterday. The Giants lost out 6 to 5 in a stiff struggle with the Pitisburg Pirates, who are threatening their stronghold, while the Yankees were shut out three to nil by the Cleveland Indians, who are also in pursuit of a rennant. The heavy hitters of the Yankees had an off day and what little they did attempt was handled easily by their opponents.

The Giants have but a half game lead in the National League over the St. Louis Cardinals, Pittsburg Pirates and Cincinnati Reds and the Yankees have a similar margin over the Claveland Indians. The Philadelphia Athletics are in second place by virtue of having played fewer games. They beat unconscious. the St. Louis Browns in a tight 4-3 contest yesterday.

HAS GRIPPED HEARTS OF COUNTRYMEN

TORONTO, May 9 .- In the hearts of his countrymen, Michael, the boy king of Roumania, easily outranks his father, Carol, who renounced his throne. and has since been mentioned as a party to intrigues to regain it, according to Hidel Terdiman, of Jassy, Roumania, a private banker, who is in the city.

"Michael has gripped the hearts of his people," said Mr. Terdiman. "He will make a good king. The people of Roumania do not want Carol to come Queen Marie's trip to America was viewed generally as a great success and a distinct help to the country in Mr. Terdiman's opinion. She came home and told us what she saw-the resourcelulness, the progressiveness and the energy of the people of this continent," he said. "She wishes us to adopt these characteristics of yours and make Roumania greater."
