Nervous and Miserable Through Constipation

"Fruit-a-tives" Restores Vigorous Health

MR. D. DUPERRON.

The drowsy, fatigued condition that usually goes with constipation is a serious handicap. Overcome it. Be healthy by taking "Fruit-a-tives". Read this letter: Maxville, Ont.—"The results are marvellous. That nervous, tired feeling has completely gone. 'Fruit-a-tives' has made a new man of me."

—Mr. Donald Duperron.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the intensified juices of ripe, fresh fruit, blended with stimulating tonics. It is the stoutest natural foe of constipation. Gentle, natural and positive in its action, it builds the system to function properly without the constant use of laxatives. 25c and 50c at all druggists. Try it—to-day.

COMMUNISTS ARE TO FIGHT

PLAN TO PUT FIFTY MEMBERS OF PARTY IN ENGLISH CONSTITUENCIES NEXT ELECTION

MANCHESTER, March 19.—A special despatch of the Guardian from Moscow says the last decision of the Plenum of the Executive Committee of the Comintern (Communist International), now sitting in Moscow, may have the effect of the appearance of fifty Communist candidates at the next English general election. As long ago as February 7 a "Pravda" leading article insisted on the need for a change in the policy of the Communist party of Great Britain because of the tendency of the Labor leaders to move to the right in a number of important questions, making it difficult for Communists to support Labor candidates, while gaining nothing from association with the Labor party, and even being hampered by it. "This change should find expression during the next elections, when the English Communist party will have to come out independently."

THE RUSSIAN VIEW

It is already known that the Russian view expressed in the "Pravda" was accepted by the Plenum and the resolution on the English situation passed unanimously, in spite of the quite natural qualms of some English delegates.

Communists will be running their own candidates not only in constituencies where they have a chance of winning, but in those where their intervention may be enough to prevent the election of Labor leaders of the Right. This move is much more than a reply to the Labor party's excommunication of Communists. Its object, according to the "Pravda," is the maximum intensification of the struggle with international social democracy, which is the chief obstacle to the conversion of wide masses of the working class to Communism. If the immediate result in England is to ensure the return to another Conservative government, no matter. The immediate enemy is not Baldwin, but MacDonald. The infuriating effect of the appearance of a large number of Communist candidates is expected to have an educational effect, finally splitting the Labor party into reformist sheep and revolutionary goats, the Communists, of course, preferring the latter.

ENGLISH VIEW

The message from Moscow has naturally interested the Labor party, and is being earnestly discussed. Nobody in or out of the Labor party expects Communist candidates to get in. The only Communist member is Mr. Saklatvala, member for Battersea. When the Communists put candidates in a number of constituencies the Labor party will certainly put up a Labor candidate in Battersea, and Mr. Saklatvala will go out whoever may come in.

The real trouble for the Labor party is that in some constituencies a Communist candidate standing against a Labor candidate might draw off enough votes to defeat the Labor candidate. The secession of even a small minority of voters can in any general election have this effect. Some of the constituencies will probably be important, and one of them very likely will be Ramsay MacDonald's constituency. Ramsay MacDonald's majority at Abercromby was just over 2,000. He won the seat at the last general election against a Liberal only. Tom Mann is in the division with the intention, I understand, of standing as a Communist candidate, and is busy organizing an association to support him. If Abercromby as is not improbable, is divided between Labor voters and Communist voters Mr. MacDonald's seat might be in danger.
