Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

Tomorrow is the date set for an exhibition lacrosse game between New Westminster's Olympic team and the best bunch of players Edmonton can select.

The Manitoba Free Press remarks that although the people of Manitoba are more than pleased that Jimmy Ball and Brant Little were successful in making a place on the Canadian Olympic team there has been great disappointment expressed in many quarters that young Billy Kibblewhite, who captured the 5,000 metres event at the trials was not also included. It is felt that his brilliant performance in the gruelling race merited more consideration than his performance received from the selection committee. Without mentioning any names we are inclined to think that there are one or two hardly attained the standard that Kibblewhite made and were selected to go.

Tex Rickard insists that the Tunney-Heeney scrap will go on quite as svheduled. Ordinarily so much "smoosh" is disseminated about these heavy battles that the bland Texan just sits back and awaits his huge profits. Folks refuse to get excited about the "titular" scrap, so Rickard comes to the front with some observations anent the forthcoming mill. He declares that the New Zealander is the logical contender and has more than an outside chance to win. The fans will recall how everybody grinned when Rickard said Tunney would beat Dempsey. Heeney is a "tough bird." Risko, Sharkey and Delaney socked him until they were tired and he came in for more. It is doubtful if Tunney can hit him any more than that tric did. The champion is likely to stand off and outbox him as he outboxed Dempsey.

Following representations made by T. A. Murphy, M.L.A., Toronto and chairman of the Ontario Athletic commission, the Ontario government by order in council Wednesday, made an additional grant of $5,000 towards the expenses of sending Ontario athletes to the Olympic games. This brings the total contribution of the Ontario government to 10,000.

SPORT CHAT

While the New York Giants, Cincinnati Reds, Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs battle for place, St. Louis Cardinals hold a steady lead in the National league and are almost looking good enough for another flag although they have anything but cinched things yet. With the failure of the Pittsburg Pirates to play consistently and Boston and Philadelphia practically out of the race, the Cards, Giants, Reds, Cubs and Dodgers have yet a lot to settle between them before the contest is any way nearer a definite settlement. The Reds have been showing renewed strength of late and may start some fireworks again. While the gap has been lessened a little, the supremacy of the Yankees in the American league still seems to be much of a cinch. About all the Athletics, indomitable as they may be, can hope for will be to hold second place though, of course, if something sensational happened, they might yet assume to the top. But that would be a very improbable happening. It is a peculiar enough situation that only two teams in the American league so far this season have won more games than they have lost.

A fight that should prove to be one of the most interesting staged in recent months is that in which Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver's great lightweight, will meet Billy Petrolle of Fargo, North Dakota, some time in August. The "Fargo Express" is a battler from the word go. He is an aggressive and colorful fighter with a husky wallop in each fist. He will outweigh McLarnin and has won some notable fights in the past two years. In spite of this it is our guess that Jimmy will take the pride of the flickertail state like Al Smith took Houston. Petrolle is made to order for McLarnin's style of fighting. He is not a hard man to hit and has won most of his rights because he can take plenty of punishment, but he has never yet run into a punch such as McLarnin packs in his good right hand. McLarnin will find Petrolle no setup. He may win by a knockout in any one of the first five rounds because of his terrific right, but Petrolle will be setting the pace as long as he is in a vertical position. Petrolle makes a specialty of his left. It is a long, accurate left with dynamite in it. It will be interesting to see which has the most dynamite, the ferocious right or the terrible left.

FIRE DAMAGES POWERBOAT 23

INVESTIGATION OF GAS LEAK WITH OPEN FLAME ATTENDED WITH DISASTROUS RESULT YESTERDAY

The well known local harbor boat "23" sustained damage roughly estimated at $500 and the owner, Henry Darby, was fortunate indeed to escape with only burns around the face and hands as a result of a fire which broke out aboard the vessel about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon as she was moored at the dry dock. Mr. Darby had perceived the odor as of leaking gas and, lifting a plank over the bilge, he lit a match to investigate. Fire followed immediately and soon the boat was a mass of flames and dense smoke which lifted into the air.

Fortunately, workmen at the dry dock were on hand and soon streams of water were playing from hoses into the boat. The fire department answered promptly to the call but the blaze was about out by the time the firemen arrived.

One boat, the Metra, which was nearby, moved away and the "23" was pulled from the vicinity of the F. H. Phippen.

Only prompt work saved the tanks on the "23" from blowing up with much more serious damage. Mr. Darby was also fortunate to escape with but minor injuries. The damage to the boat included charring of inside woodwork and bulkheads and the burning out of the wiring and ignition. There was no insurance on the boat.

It was only recently that Mr. Darby took over the "23," having made a trade on his former boat "Naas River" with the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co.

PLAIN APPLE SAUCE

Editor, Daily News:—

Mr. Baxter in his speech here last evening made the statement that the Asylum for the acutelt insane, which was built at Essondale at a cost of hundred of thousands of dollars by the Liberal government was used primarily for the housing of crazy Chinese. He left the impression that when a crazy Chinaman was found in Vancouver or elsewhere in B.C., he was carried to Essondale and placed behind mahogany doors, etc. Mr. Baxter told us he was a K.C. and entitled to practice law, so he should know what he is talking about. But the point I make is this, if a Chinese was found in Vancouver or elsewhere in B.C. afflicted with accute insanity would he or she be deported. In that case then what Mr. Baxter was giving us here was just plain apple sauce to catch votes. Will you please set me right on this point.
