

Man in the Moon

It's wonderful how enthusiastic we can become over a cause if we are going to get something out of it.

If everybody was wise and decent the lawyers and doctors would go into the discard.

A real gentleman is one who keeps on living just the same even on a desert island.

Separating some men from a dollar is worse than separating Siamese twins.

I think I know A perfect nut Instead of "Damn" He says "Tut tut."

Some people always bring home the bacon and others bring home nothing but a lot of Bologna.

I knew a man who was fond of cross word puzzles so instead of looking for them in the papers he got married.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

October 22, 1918

Archbishop F. H. DuVernet's plea that all Protestant churches should unite is causing much discussion and a number of letters are being published in the Daily News on the subject.

The skipper of the halibut boat Panama brings word that the schooner Helgeland, Capt. Pete Peterson, was sunk at Ketchikan yesterday by the steamer Admiral Watson and is now lying in thirty feet of water in the harbor there.

Local fishing boat owners are up in arms over the failure of the governments to provide shelter for them here. Many vessels have been injured along the waterfront in recent gales.
