Accounts totalling $8,231.05, including $2,359.82 in accounts, $5,211.23 salaries, $150 for substitutes' salaries, and $530 miscellaneous were passed for payment by the school board last night.

Fair Association and school board, meeting in the City Hall last night, were serenaded by the Boys' Band. The Fair people may have enjoyed it but the hearing of the school trustees was tested.

Trustee Gilchrist, reported at last night's meeting of the school board that there was insufficient seating accommodation in the domestic science quarters for the large classes from the High School and that work benches in the manual training quarters were in need of repairs. The school committee was delegated to make further investigations.

Miss Halliwell requested the school board last night to purchase rakes and hoes to be used by the children in developing a school garden at Westview. This, as well as the matter of the purchase of the school piano, was referred to the school committee. Certain trustees have offered to do preliminary work on the ground preparatory to the making of the garden.

That of Miss Halliwell for Westview School was the only school report for the month of March presented to the school board last night. Miss Halliwell announced an enrollment at her school of 23, 11 boys and 12 girls. Reports were also received from Donald Ross, manual training instructor, and Miss Rogers, domestic science instructor, but there was no other principal's reports.

After hearing a request from Mr. McKinley, agent for a set of educational books, that he be allowed access to the rolls of the school classes with a view to canvassing the parents, the school board decided last night that it could give no such definite consent as it might prove a troublesome precedent. The board suggested that Mr. McKinley confer with the principals of the schools and, if necessary, take the matter up personally with the chairman.

An offer of $75 from Mrs. Viereck for a stove which has been replaced in the domestic science department was referred to the school committee by the school board last night.

Miss Mary D. Sim of Borden Street school staff had a letter before the school board last night expressing her appreciation for consideration that had been shown her during recent illness and bereavement in her family.

Secretary J. O. Williamson informed the school board last night that, in compliance with a request that had been received, he had sent a copy of the local salary schedule to A. A. Wilson, secretary of the Fernie school board.

Miss B. A. Leitch had a letter before the school board last night stating that, due evidently to a misunderstanding, she was not receiving salary commensurate with her experience as called for under the schedule. Further enquiries will be made with a view to effecting an adjustment.

The regular monthly meeting of the school board was held last evening. Those present were Chairman H. B. Rochester; Trustees Thomas McMeekin, Mrs. T. M. Spencer, S. D. Johnston, William Gilchrist; Secretary John O. Williamson, and Miss S. A. Mills and Miss Halliwell, teachers.

Letters from Miss S. Jean Shaw, on the staff of a Calgary business college, applying for a position in the commercial class here and from Miss Edna Vickers, now teaching at Driftwood, for a billet in the public schools, were placed on file for future reference by the school board last night.

Tenders for lumber for the manual training department were opened at last night's school board meeting and referred to the secretary and school committee for tabulation with power to act. Albert & McCaffery submitted a tender of $940 and the tender of J. Fyfe Smith of Vancouver was not tabulated.

George Woodland, chairman of the club service committee presided at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon and read a short paper on the work of the committee. Archdeacon Rix spoke briefly on fellowship and Harry Pullen on programs. Song selections were given by Ernest Smith accompanied by H. N. Brocklesby.

The school board last night instructed its secretary to write letters of condolence to Miss Jessie Rothwell and Miss E. M. Lauder, teachers of Booth Memorial staff, who were bereaved recently through the death of mother and brother respectively. Motion was made by Trustee Mrs. Spencer and seconded by Trustee Gilchrist.

Members of the Vancouver Sun "Better English Bee" prize winners, on their way south last night aboard the steamer Prince George, were entertained while here at an enjoyable party at the home of Mrs. S. E. Parker, 219 Second Ave. Members of the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association were in charge and a number of local school children were in attendance.

A list of light, telephone, water and garbage charges by the city on the schools was presented to the board last night by Trustee Gilchrist. After considerable discussion, it was left to the chairman to seek adjustments in the way of having the minimum charge of $3 for water reduced as well as the flat 8c rate on light. Charging of the schools for garbage collection also came in for some criticism.

Trustee Johnston reported at last night's school board meeting that Miss Myranny Campbell had been engaged as physical instructor for the High School girls in succession to Douglas Frizell. Miss Campbell is paid $3.00 per day and she holds class once a week. The board decided to apply to the Education Department for fifty per cent of the cost of this as well as other special courses which are so provided for.
