HE saw them in her kitchen -a host of elf-like men. A miller, a soap maker, a travelling salesman. A band of Lilliputians, each representing some one local industry in which her fellow men and women are employed.

Back of each local product she saw ambitious families just like her own. That is why she enjoyed a sense of pride and loyalty every time she purchased the products of her fellow men. In every room in her house she saw the vision of the elfine workmen, for the articles of her home from attic to basement were the products of her home land.

> There's a moral to this story

Every time a housewife purchases a B.C. Product, B.C. husbands benefit. B.C. industries are kept active replacing the products purchased by local housewives. Every woman who knows the prosperity of British Columbia husbands depends on their wives asks first: "Is it made in B.C.?"
