AROUND PRINCE RUPERT Taltapin Mine in Babine North of Burns Lake is Active-Ore Body Being Tunneled at Terminus in Portland Canal

W. S. Bacon, engineer in charge of operations at the Taltapin mine in the Babine country north of Burns Lake, reports that the mine is in ore and that all indications point to high-grade ore in large quantities. That the mine may become a rich producer on a large basis within a short time is believed. A new directorate for week by a special railway car carrying is proposed to move the long distance the Taltapin Co. was elected at Vancouver this week. W. C. Stearman, prominent Vancouver hardware man who has long been interested in the property, is the president. Other directors are: Capt. David Baird, vice-president; W. D. Gillespie, secretary-treasurer; R. M. Morgan, general manager; William Greenlees and Arthur Wood.

Stewart has been advanced eighty-three and the committee was instructed to feet, the last 22 feet being driven through a heavily mineralized zone with excellent looking ore. Better results are being encountered as development work progresses. The mine was recently refinanced by H. A. Heywood.

The annual dance of the Prince Rupert Tennis Club in the Moose Hall last night proved to be a very enjoyable affair, about 125 persons being present. The hall was tastily decorated in the blue and white colors of the club with tennis nets and racquets strong along the walls. Decorations were arranged by William Cruikshank and F. E. Robertson, assisted by members of the club generally. The dance program, arranged by Fred Cabeldu, was in progress from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m., excellent music being furnished by Al Smail and his orchestra. John V. Clyne, general convener of the affair, was master of ceremonies and Poli Howard presided at the door.

STATES MISS

The latest thing for Prince Rupert is a ladies' taxi. Miss Ruth Hilchey. formerly known as Mr. Tupper, bookkeeper at the Prince Tup rt Table Supply, is starting the service Monday from her residence, Sixth Avenue West, using her chevrolet for the purpose. Miss Hilchey, in an interview with the Daily News, said she planned drive ladies only or possibly married couples. She thinks many ladies in the city will appreciate a service of this kind and plans to try it out. The service is rather unique.
