WOMEN IN THE PULPIT TODAY

UNITED CHURCH CANNOT REFUSE ORDINATION TO ANY WOMAN CALLED FOR MINISTRY

TORONTO, March 8—That the United Church of Canada cannot refuse full ordination to any woman called by God to the ministry is the strongly expressed opinion of Rev. Dr. Salem Bland.

"It is simply following the great Christian principle that in Christ there is neither male nor female. I do not think that there will be any great rush of women into the ministry, but it is the right of the few if they are called of God and the Church is satisfied that they are. It is not to be assumed that any woman can bustle forward and say, 'I want to be a preacher.'"

In point of fact, he believed the Baptist Church was sympathetic to according recognition to women in the pulpit. Dr. Bland also pointed out that two women had participated in the recent debate in England in the House of Laity, "the most august law assemblage in the Church of England."

Dr. Bland also quoted the late W. T. Stead's saying that he knew six women who could run the British Empire. The speaker also recalled that Catherine of Sienna had bent the then Pope to her will, that Apollos had sat at the feet of Priscilla. He mentioned such women as Mrs. Booth, Frances Willard and Maude Royden.

WALES PLANNING AN ORCHESTRA

PERSONNEL OF THIRTY NATIONAL MUSICIANS IS SCHEME FOR CITY OF CARDIFF

CARDIFF, Wales, March 8.—The Welsh National Council of Music, the National Museum of Wales, and the City Corporation of Cardiff, co-operating with the British Broadcasting Company, have drawn up a scheme for a "National Orchestra of Wales" to perform in public and to broadcast nationally. If the scheme survives the experimental stage it may serve as the model for similar schemes to stimulate popular revival of active interest in music.

The Broadcasting Company has undertaken to support the scheme financially. The Cardiff City Corporation will provide the Assembly Rooms at the City Hall on two nights a week, with permission to charge for admission at popular prices. These concerts will be given in three seasons—12 weeks before and 12 weeks after Christmas—with six weeks in the early summer.

The Council of the National Museum of Wales has for one experimental year given the museum for a daily hour of free music and on four days of each week a midday (or afternoon) orchestral concert will be broadcast from there.

The orchestra will begin with a personnel of 30 on a permanent salary basis, the contracts being in a form which does not permit of deputies. Warwick Braithwaite, the conductor of the Cardiff Musical Society and musical director of the Cardiff station of the British Broadcasting Company, will be the first conductor.

The control of the orchestra is vested in a council consisting of the Lord Mayor of Cardiff and Sir John Daniel (representing the Cardiff City Corporation); Sir Walford Davies and Professor David Evans (representing the National Council of Music); Dr. Fox, of the National Museum of Wales, and representatives of the British Broadcasting Company.

MENTAL DEFICIENCY COSTLY TO PROVINCE

Plea for Training School Made to Legislature for Mental Deficients

VICTORIA, March 8. — Mental deficiency now costs the people of British Columbia more than a quarter of million dollars a year and most of the amount is spent without benefit to the mentally deficient individuals or to the community, members of the Legislature were told last night by D. M. LeBourdais of Toronto, director of education of the Canadian national committee of mental hygiene.

The House adjourned in order to allow Mr. LeBourdais to present arguments in support of the establishment of a provincial training school for mental deficients and to discuss other matters pertaining to the treatment of the mentally afflicted.
