Has Entered Canada Since 1923 Unless Smuggled ROBBED FURN In, but Some Visitors From Here Have Returned Home to This Country

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—Unless some ingenious devices of those attempting to smuggle Chinese into Canada have been successful not a single individual from China has entered the Dominion since 1923, exclusive of those returning to Canada, their domiciles having been established previous to that year, declared W. C. Cowell, of the investigation department for the Pacific region under the Dominion government, who arrived in Montreal today on the Andania en route to Vancouver after visiting his former home on the Isle of Man.
