PRINCE RUPERT IS BEST PORT

Interesting Debate Featured Program at Meeting of Fireside Club Last Evening

A debate on the subject "Resolved that Stewart is a more suitable seaport than Prince Rupert for the interior of Northern British Columbia" proved a most interesting and enjoyable diversion at the weekly meeting last night of the Fireside Club of First Baptist Church. As might have been expected, a ballot of the audience gave a large majority in favor of the champions of Prince Rupert who were F. Burdett and Miss Bessie Derry. Those who argued in favor of Stewart were James Underwood and Miss Catherine Mussallem. Much valuable information and many interesting arguments were adduced by either side.

The meeting opened with devotional exercises and other items on the program included a reading by Harry Quick, piano solo by Miss Aleita McKinley, vocal solo by Mrs. Charles Larkin, vocal duet by Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Price and community singing. Miss Agnes Dawson, the president, occupied the chair.

At the close of the program, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Larkin. There was a large attendance.

LIGHTHOUSE TENDER IN SERVICE AGAIN

Newington Leaves Dry Dock After Undergoing Extensive Overhaul

After having spent some six weeks in the local dry dock undergoing an extensive overhaul as the result of which she looks almost a new ship, the lighthouse tender Newington, with Captain Harry Ormiston in command, is back in service again. The vessel left the yard yesterday afternoon at 2:30. Renovations on the trim little steamer included a new foremast and redecking throughout.

Nervous and Run Down The Least Noise Would Bother Her

"Big Parade" Film at Capitol a Revelation

First-Night Audience Carried Off Its Feet; John Gilbert Is Great Contributing Amazingly True and Vital Portrait; Renee Adoree Delightful

The long awaited showing of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Big Parade" occurred last evening at the Capitol Theatre, where a large audience greeted the film with unprecedented enthusiasm. All expectations were surpassed. The reception accorded the film was overwhelming, a concensus of opinion being that the picture is easily the greatest achievement yet written into the annals of the screen.

The story of the film can bbe told in a single sentence: An American doughboy goes to France. It is revelation of character, rather than complication of plot, that gives the film its superior merit. John Gilbert's portrayal of Jim Apperson, the doughboy in question, is one of the most amazingly true and vital portraits ever contributed to the silver sheet. As a mud-covered hero of the trenches, he remains profoundly human, virile and romantic throughout.

No less delightful is Renee Adoree as his peasant sweetheart. Miss Adoree herself a native of France, is entertainingly real as Melisande. In that section of the picture wherein she stands in the middle of the road between passing lorries looking frantically for her departing lover she is superb.

But all the acting is astonishingly good. Karl Dane as Slim, a hard-boiled tobacco-chewing buddy of Gilbert's, and Tom O'Brien as his other companion, deserve high honors

FIRE ON HALIBUT BOAT LAST NIGHT

Little Damage Done When Flames Break Out Aboard Bingo

The fish hold of the halibut boat Bingo was scorched at 6:30 last night with a fire which broke out when a match was lit and caused the ignition of gas fumes coming from the bilge. The boat was moored at the float in front of the Nelson Trading Co., and the match was lit by a member of the crew who was going into the vessel. Though there was a lot of smoke, the boat sustained but little damage and the man was not hurt.
