YOUNG PEOPLE OF GREAT BRITAIN BEING EDUCATED BY NEWSPAPERS ON EMPIRE

The Daily Sketch and allied newspapers in co-operation with the Cunard Steamship Company and the Canadian National Railway are giving a free trip to Canada and a tour through the country for fifty boys and girls from the schools of Great Britain and Ireland. These boys and girls are selected from those who answered questions on Empire matters published daily in the string of 160 newspapers.

Among the questions which these young folks have to answer are:

"When was the town of Prince Rupert founded and what railway serves it?"

"Where are the principal salmon fisheries of Canada?"

These questions being asked by 160 leading newspapers and answered by thousands of the young people of Great Britain and Ireland will at least let them know where this city is and what are its industries.

PRETTY WEDDING AT MANSE LAST EVENING

Miss Elizabeth Robertson Becomes Bride Of James Fraser Andrews

A pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian manse last night, Rev. J. R. Frizell officiating, when Miss Elizabeth Robertson of Greenock, Scotland, became the bride of James Fraser Andrews of this city. The bride who had just arrived from Scotland, looked very charming in a gown of white crepe de chine with silver lace and carrying a bouquet of gladiolas. She was given away by Mr. Taylor. Acting as bridesmaid was Mrs. M. Andrews in a gown of pale blue charmeen with hat to match and carrying a bouquet of Iris. The groomsman was Copsley Taylor.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. Taylor, 224 Fourth Avenue West, which was attended by a large number of friends. Many beautiful presents were received including a very valuable one from the employees of the Seal Cove mill.

The gifts of the bride to the groom was an engraved gold watch; of the groom to the bride a fur necklet; of the groom to the bridesmaid, a leather embossed handbag; of the bride to the groomsman, gold cuff links.

The young folks will reside on Fifth Avenue West.

An interesting incident in connection with the wedding was that it was held on the fourth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, both of whom were present and the bride presented Mrs. Smith with her wedding bouquet as part of the celebration.

RICHMOND'S LOUVRE HAS TOO MANY LADIES' DRESSES IN STOCK

Caused partly by the absence of real spring and summer weather—at least up to today—Richmond's Louvre find themselves overstocked with Ladies' Dresses and with further stocks arriving regularly. The Louvre is therefore compelled to make a clearance as their orders for goods still to arrive are firm orders and cannot be cancelled.

This gives an opportunity to the ladies of the city which as usual, they will not be slow to take advantage of. Particulars of some of the bargains being offered will be found in their display advertisement in this issue, but these are only a few of the many similar values to be had.

This sale of Dresses starts tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and you will be well advised to be there as soon as you can thereafter.

Summer weather being here at last, the brightness of the sunshine demands bright clothing. The slowness of sales during the last two months indicates that many ladies have put off buying during the dull days. Here now is their opportunity to secure their requirements far under regular prices. Advt.
