S. P. McMordie Lays His Platform Before Electors in Mayoralty Contest Now in Progress Here

To the Electors, City of Prince Rupert:-

In soliciting your vote and support in the coming Mayoralty Election, I desire to set before you the stand I take on the principal issues of the day.

SINGLE TAX

I am unreservedly in favor of the Single Tax. In my opinion every ratepayer should view with alarm the prospect of the Taxation of Improvements, especially so in the case of the small householder who has bought a residence lot and built his own home thereon. Taxation of Improvements would certainly be a tremendous barrier to the progress of the City, as capital* where it would be liable to heavy taxa-

PEACE RIVER OUTLET

I am in favor of the City Council taking such action as will bring before the Government the advantages of Prince Rupert as the logical outlet for the great Peace River country.

POWER QUESTION As the City is not financially in a position to further develop its Electrical Power, I am in favor of encouraging capital to go on with the development of Electrical Power in this neighborhood. so that the City's present supply may be augmented, taking particular care that all the City's rights are properly protected.

SEWERS

The lack of Sewers is, in my view, health, and I would strongly advocate ting to be a very serious matter.
