Conservative House Leader Thinks Canadian National Should Fulful its Agreement and Operate Road

VICTORIA, Jan. 23.—Interviewed as to the attitude of the Conservative party in the Provincial Legislature in the event of a vote of $2,000,000 or more being proposed by the Government at the forthcoming session for the extension and reconditioning of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, R. H. Pooley, House leader of the Opposition. said he was not in a position to say until what is being planned is known. There have been many rumors recently, he says, regarding the future of the P.G.E., and the government has been casting about in many quarters in an effort to find a solution of the problem. A late rumor, according to Mr. Pooley, has connected the visit of Sir Edward Mackay Edgar with a proposal for taking over the railway.

Mr. Pooley emphasizes that in connection with the P.G.E. the Conservative policy, on one important point. has not changed. In this respect Mr. Pooley says:
