RACED HORSE EIGHT MILES EACH MORNING

MARATHON RUNNER GOT TRAINING BY SPRINTING TO SCHOOL IN OKLAHAMA

CLAREMORE, Okla., April 25.—Andrew Payne, the 20-year-old Rogers county boy who has shown his heels to many veterans in the Los Angeles-to-New York marathon, developed endurance in a daily eight-mile race against a horse.

While going to school, eight miles from his farm home, Andrew put his kid brother on a horse in the mornings and let animal and rider get a good start. Then he took after them. Horse and boy ran with all their might over eight miles of rock, mud and hills, and Andrew usually got to school ahead of his brother.

Andrew graduated from high school last spring with high scholastic honors.

"When it's studying a book, picking cotton or running a race, Andy wants to win," his mother fondly mused.

Young Payne was more than half the track team at high school. When he was entered in a district meet at Miami the automobile taking him there broke down, delaying his arrival at the field until the last call for the mile race. Undaunted, the boy took his place at the starting line attired in ordinary clothes and farm boots and he won.

Andy went into the transcontinental foot race as the representative of Claremore and its most distinguished citizen, Will Rogers. He explained he would run for Will because his father and the lasso comedian used to bunk together when they worked on a farm.

Claremore is on the route of the shoe leather express.

TENNIS CHAMPION OF JAPAN IS TAMIO ABE OF YOKOHAMA

NEW YORK, April 25.— Tamio Abe, tennis champion of Japan and member of the Japanese Davis Cup team, has been engaged as a teacher at Mable Memorial, a famous Baptist school for boys at Yokohama.

This school, with its campus high on the bluff overlooking Yokohama harbor, is known to all visitors to Japan. The buildings were destroyed by the great earthquake of 1923, but temporary structures were erected on the campus and the enrollment is now about the same as before the disaster.

Tamio Abe is a Christian and is a son of Professor Abe of Waseda University, who has been active in Baptist work among the students of that institution. The young man will take up his work at Mable as soon as he returns to Japan from his travels with the Davis Cup team.

SPITBALL IS ALMOST GONE

PASSING OF SHOCKER OF THE YANKEES NEARLY BRINGS DEVOTEES TO CLOSE

NEW YORK, April 25— Another famous tribe—the spit ball pitchers of baseball—is rpaidly becoming extinct. Now that Urban Shocker has made up his mind to moisten bank notes in his St. Louis radio shop in preference to wetting the old spheroid, the ranks of this once great galaxy of hurlers has dwindled to a mere half dozen.

Only eight years ago the major leagues decided on concurrent action to ban freak deliveries and agreed that seventeen bona fide spitball pitchers, then performing in the big circuits would be the only ones exempt.

Of that number, the National had eight, namely, Bill Doak, Shuffling Phil Douglas, Dana Fillingim, Ray Fisher, Marvin Goodwin, Burleigh Grimes, Clarence Mitchell and Dick Rudolph. Today, only Doak of the Robins, Mitchell of the Phillies and Grimes of the Pirates, survive.

With the passing of Shocker of the Yankees, three of the moist ball flingers are left in the American League. When the rule was passed in 1920, there were A. W. Ayers, Ray Caldwell, Stanley Coveleski, Urban Faber, H. B. Leonard, Jack Quinn, Allan Russell, Shocker and Allan Sothoron.

Coveleskie, now battling for a regular berth with the Yankees, Faber of the White Sox and Quinn of the Athletics remain on the American League active list. Sothoron, formerly with the Browns, is a coach with the Cardinals.

The ancient Polish heaver, Coveleskie, has turned in two good performances during the southern training grind and seems "assured of some sort of a contract with the world champions.

Jack Quinn, the Methuselah of baseball, is entering his 25th year on the diamond. Now 43 years old, Quinn began tossing his puzzling spitter with the old Yankees in 1909. It is an odd twist of fate that Quinn in his early major league days had his poorest luck against Connie Mack's Athletics of whom he is at present a member.

Mitchell, Doak, Grimes and Faber seem to be ready for at least another season but 1929 may bring further reductions in the fast thinning line of these moundsmen who acquired their skill in the days when chewing tobacco was an art in itself.

There are tennis courts, says the Granby News, where the votary of the racquet can get as strenuous a game as desired, and ball grounds where the chaser of the well-kicked pigskin and the hard-driven baseball can get the thrills that are worth crowding into an evening's sport. It really doesn't matter who wins, the main thing is the striving!

WALL WALLA FARMER IS ROTARY GOVERNOR

SEATTLE, April 24.—John Casper, a Walla Walla farmer, was yesterday chosen governor of the first district of Rotary International.

The next annual conference will be held at Vancouver, B.C.

SPORT CHAT

The Anyox Tennis Club has elected officers for the year as follows: honorary president, Charles Bocking; honorary vice-president, W. R. Lindsay; president, R. O. Cutler; vice-president, George Lee; secretary, V. S. McRae; executive, Mrs. Fricker, Mrs. Roy, Mr. Cavers and G. H. Stewart. The court at the smelter town have now been put in good shape by the Community League. Only members of the Community League are accepted as members of the tennis club.

Three pitchers of the hold-out variety in the big leagues are still keeping their distance from their respective clubs although the campaign is already two weeks old. An effort by President McDiarmid of Cincinnati, to smooth out the wrinkles of a dispute with Pete Donohue in a conference was unsuccessful. Donohue said he was returning to his Texas home while McDiarmid wished him the "best of luck." The pitcher balked at a reduction in salary. Urban Shocker, the spitball veteran of the Yankees, is still engaged in a belated training siege at the St. Louis ball park, waiting for a move from New York to reopen dickerings. The other prodigal, Vic Aldridge, has ignored the call of the New York Giants.
