AMERICAN POLICE

Yesterday the police at Lakehurst came under fire the favorite in the interior a from a German visitor who arrived on the Graf Zeppelin anyrate but there may possibly b and who complains that the force was too lenient with other names before the conventhe American spectators and too strict with the German tion. visitors.

It must be remembered that the police had a new and he will undoubtedly get condition with which to cope. Foreign landings at Lake- strong support but there is very hurst are not yet common and it is probable that there bitter opposition to him in othe are no conveniences for carrying out customs and immi-quarters. gration work. Also the American crowd was larger than they expected and showed more enthusiasm than was needed just now is a man o customary.

German police have a name for dealing in a more summary manner with offenders who crowd on them, a manner that would be resented here. While it is possible TRUE BILLS IN that the German minister of the interior may have had that the German minister of the interior may have had some reason for his complaint, we are glad to know that German methods are in vogue on this continent.

VANCOUVER ELECTION

Whatever may be the outcome of the election in Vancouver today, the campaign has been a most pleasant one. There has been a good deal of mud raking and personalities have played an important part in the speeches of the candidates. The fact that the commission of inquiry preceded the election made it almost certain that the foreman of the jury. the proceedings of that unsavory inquiry would be used against Mayor Taylor and they were bound to be of a personal nature.

RADIO RECEPTION

It is satisfactory to know that the city council is willing to take steps to make its utility operations less objectionable to radio fans. There is no doubt that reception is very difficult in the centre of the city and if the city out. officials can do anything to remedy the condition it should be attended to at once.

Radio is come to be looked upon as one of the modern necessities and anything that will help to popularize it is an educative factor. We hope that immediate steps will be taken to find the leaks in the power system, if assize I'd like to be a counsel who there are any, and to so improve the condition generally could wear a gown and do the that radio fans either in the down town sections or in the talking. suburbs may be able to snatch pleasure from the air without difficulty.

SECRET TREATIES

Great Britain is accused of making a secret treaty with France just at the time when the world was beginning to take strong objection to secret covenants. It was also closely following the attempt on the part of Britain to make a naval agreement with United States. ent. It was submitted to the States only after that country had heard of it through the activities of the Hearst newspapers.

While the French and British governments curse Hearst as a disturber of the peace and the Hearst representative in France has been compelled to leave that Will give Louis Taylor the air. country, it is probable that Hearst has done a great service to the cause of open diplomacy. He has shown the fallacy of trying to keep such things secret. It will be a long time before Britain or France will again attempt to to Hallowe'en. negotiate any secret pact, especially in view of the attitude taken by United States and by a very large section of their own people against their action.

It is not improbable that the treaty may be the means of unseating the present Baldwin government. At any so that ought to settle the matrate it is being used a great deal in the campaign which ter. is now being waged.
