BIG EVENT DECLARED A DRAW AL-THOUGH MANY THOUGHT SAILOR WINNER

WHOLE AFFAIR WAS WELL MAN-AGED AND SPECTATORS HAD PLENTY FOR THEIR MONEY

Though he outgeneralled and outpointed his rival all the way and was entitled to the decision on both points and rounds, Stoker Percy Lake of H. M. S. Durban was unfortunate last night in being awarded but a draw with Johnny Woods of Seattle in a ten round bout which headlined one of the finest boxing cards that has been presented here in years. The naval man won everything in the bout but the decision. One judge fairly gave him the call but the referee and second judge called a draw in spite of the fact that Lake led the fighting most of the way, scored two points to his opponent's one and also had the margin on rounds.

The decision was apparently unpopular with the mass of probably the largest assembly that has ever witnessed a boxing card in Prince Rupert. It is estimated that nearly one thousand people attended the Exhibition Hall for the occasion and the gate, it is understood, amounted to over $1,000. The event was promoted by Ben Self who is to be congraulated not only upon the excellence of the bouts, there was not a dead number on the card, but also the smooth manner in which all arrangements went off and the large crowd was handled.

The main event started shortly after 10 o'clock. Woods was in his corner some time before Lake arrived on the scene. Lake's age was announced as twenty years and his weight 1361/4 lbs. Woods was nineteen years old and his weight 129 3/4 lbs. Lake was the shortor and stockier; Woods was taller and slimmer. It was announced that straight Marquis of Queensberry rules would be followed.

First round-Woods went in and. with straight jabs, drove Lake against the ropes. They exchanged right and left head blows, Lake swinging more than Woods. They had a brief slugging exchange and then a spell of inlighting, the excellence of which, particularly on Lake's part was to prove the feature of the bout. Honors were fairly even in this round.

Second Round-When Woods feinted and missed. Lake was right on top of him and drove him into the ropes with a slashing attack. The same thing occurred again on the other side of the ring. Woods missed both right and left swings and Lake made points in infighting which followed. It was ake's round by a wide margin.

Third round-They mixed more freeand Lake got the best of the exchanges. Woods rushed toward Lake but found him gone and plunged into the ropes. There was infighting in which both made points though Lake was the best in this. Lake's round. Fourth round-Leading off with his left, Lake tried to rough Woods but found him well protected. Woods was defending and returning well and, at close quarters, landed a hard one on the back of Lake's neck. Wood's round. Fifth round-Woods led more in this round but found Lake willing. There was a splendid exhibition of sparring and infighting. Both were showing their sciennce as boxers. Lake landed some hard ones on Wood's face and the latter's nose commenced to trickle.
