TERRACE

At the Civic Centre board of directors meeting, O. A. Kaulbeck presiding, it was decided to accept the offer of Don Forward of Prince Rupert to have the Philadelphia Colored Giants basketball team come here early in the new year while on tour in this part of the country.

Directors gratefully accepted a donation of $151.50 from Mrs. Ted Brue, proceeds from the music concert presented at the Civic Centre recently by Mrs. Brue.

Plans got underway for the New Year's Eve cabaret to take place at the Civic Centre.

The kitchen in the main auditorium is nearly finished and gift of a stove was acknowledged. The stove is the gift of the Columbia Cellulose Company through courtesy of Superintendent Harold Lynum.

The Rebekah Lodge held its meeting in the IOOF Hall when officers for the new term were elected.

Tag day for the CNIB was reported successful.

Members are making plastic bassinette linings for the nursery at the hospital.

Practice was held for the eight new members to be admitted to the lodge in December.

Officers elected for the coming term were: Noble Grand, Mrs. Fred Thomas; Vice Grand, Mrs. Pat McIlroy; recording secretary, Mrs. A. C. Calder; financial secretary, Mrs. D. Collison; treasurer, Mrs. J. Matthews.

Home for the Aged sewage disposal system is completed, although connection of the new sewer line has not yet been made, pending word from provincial government authorities at Victoria.

R. McKay of the Federal Wildlife Department made a trip to Lake Louise while visiting in Terrace last week. He was accompanied by Jack Williams, local game warden.

Mr. McKay also made arrangements for the feeding of the lake's annual winter visitors, the Trumpeter swans.

Five dollars from the high school students' council was the first contribution made to Terrace Library. The district needs $300 and the government will add the same amount to help the library get started.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Griffiths left Terrace recently for Rockland, Wisconsin, where Mr. Griffiths will take a teaching post. He will return in the spring to clear up remaining business. In returning to Wisconsin Mrs. Griffiths is going back to the state of her girlhood home.

Wilfred Flynn left Terrace at the week-end for Calgary, where he plans to visit his mother.

The Village Commissioners have purchased a new fire pump to supplement their fire fighting equipment. The new piece of equipment is a seven h.p. McCullough pump and can throw a stream of water more than 100 feet. Volunteers work under the direction of fire chief W. R. Tooth.

The town is now completely covered with a blanket of snow. It has been snowing intermittently for the past few days. The weather has been very mild and the wood piles are not, as yet, taking a beating.

Members of the P.T.A. are busy planning "The Community Christmas Tree" party to be held in the Canadian Legion Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crawford are leaving for the south on Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with their daughter Jeanne who is studying nursing at St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver.

Queen Mary Members Wrap Xmas Presents

Yuletide spirit ranged throughout the regular monthly meeting of the Queen Mary Chapter, IODE, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Teng.

Members wrapped Christmas gifts and addressed cards, then followed the business session with a Christmas party of their own, singing carols, playing games and giving gifts to each other.

Five parcels were sent to Britain, others to soldiers in Korea. Christmas cards were mailed to past members now in other cities.

More records, as a Christmas gift, were mailed to Sunnyside School, the chapter's adopted school. Money was voted to buy parcels for the Pioneers' Home. The monthly prize was won by Mrs. R. Scherk Regent Mrs. H. C. Flood extended her best wishes to members as a seasonal greeting.

NAVY NEWS...

These last two weeks at Chatham have been as infected with the Christmas Spirit as it is possible to be. Last Saturday night saw the Officers' pie-Christmas party in the canteen, and all reports from those who attended indicated a great success. Certainly, all the officers worked hard enough in decorating the canteen and keeping the guests happy.

Next Wednesday night sees the annual Wardroom RPC for the Lower Deck (RPC stands for "Request Pleasure of Your Company"). This is one drill where a complete turn out is expected, as the officers play host to the men in the wardroom.

More and more Christmas cards have been arriving at Chatham these last few days. Our collection from the RCN Far East Destroyer Squadron is now complete, with HMCS Crusader and HMCS Athabaskan being heard from.

All proceeds of last night's dance are going to the Navy-sponsored Christmas tree for the children, to be held on the afternoon of December 21st. A large crowd attended.

Cambrai Chapter IODE Arrange Christmas Hampers

Arrangements were made for members to pack Christmas Hampers for families in Prince Rupert, at the December Meeting of the Cambrai Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, held at the home of Mrs. D. Black, secretary. Twenty-two members attended.

Being the Christmas season, Mrs. Black had her home decorated for the festive season, with the annual Christmas tree and gifts for the members.

Blankets and Baby sets were sent to Provincial Chapter to be forwarded to needy families in Europe. Donations for cigarettes were sent to the men in the services at Korea.

After the meeting Mrs. V. Miller and Mrs. J. Tasman distributed the gifts from the tree, and delicious refreshments were served.

A special prize was won by Mr. A. A. Miller and Mrs. G. P. Lyons won the monthly prize.

559 Squadron Entertain Sea Cadets at Xmas Party

Members of the No. 559 Prince Rupert Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets led off the season of Christmas with a gay show at the Armory.

Guests at the well-attended affair were the Sea Cadets "Captain Cook" ship, of the HMCS Chatham, and sponsoring members of the Air Cadets.

Convenor of the evening was Murray Johnston, assisted by Archie Gordon, both members of the sponsoring committee. Others present were squadron padre Rev. L. Steber, instructor Norman Haywood, Bill Bryant, F. E. Anfield, Jack Laurie, Dr. A. W. Large, Dr. W. R. S. Wilson, R. C. Brown, M. M. Johnston and J. F. Magor. Wives of the sponsoring committee members also attended and arranged for the serving of refreshments.

Merchants and school teachers who arranged for the decorations and otherwise assisted were warmly thanked for the help. It was also announced by Mr. Bryant, equipment officer, that uniforms will arrive soon. Another party is planned for early next year.
