BRITISH IMMIGRATION SCHEME OFFERED

TROOP TRAIN WRECKS IN ONTARIO; TWO SOLDIERS DIE

Imperial Government to Finance Workless in Move to Dominions

Thousands of single men, boys, women and families to come to Canada under plan of Winston Churchill

LONDON, July 25.—Addressing the House of Commons last night on an opposition censure vote, Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Home Secretary, announced some new measures which will be taken for the relief of industry in Great Britain, particularly a subsidy for railroads in return for the reduction of freight rates on coal to the extent of seven-and-a-half pence per ton on export coal and ten and a half pence on steam coal. The government also proposes to make emigration easier by sweeping away obstacles which would provide larger grants to enable emigrants to purchase outfits in a new country and a scheme is to be put into effect by which two thousand five hundred boys, seven thousand single men, five hundred families and two thousand women will be emigrated to Canada from the mining districts. The cost of the undertaking, it is estimated, will reach $600,000 per year.

ST. LOUIS HAS GOOD LEAD NOW

LITTLE CHANCE OF BEING DISPLACED FROM NATIONAL LEADERSHIP—START EASTERN TOUR WELL

NEW YORK, July 25.—With little chance of anybody overtaking them, St. Louis Cardinals, National League leaders, began an Eastern invasion yesterday with a victory over Brooklyn Dodgers, home runs deciding the game. Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds are trailing St. Louis with little promise of pennant success.

There was only one game in the American League yesterday but that proved interesting. The Red Sox had the best of everything up to the eighth inning against the New York Yankees but dropped when the Yanks rallied in the ninth.

LIQUOR SELLERS AT ANYOX FINED

TOTAL OF $1200 COLLECTED AS RESULT OF CASES IN SMELTER TOWN OVER WEEK-END

Five persons were charged at Anyox over the week-end under the Government Liquor Act with keeping liquor for sale. Four of the cases resulted in convictions and the fifth in dismissal. Fines totalling $1200 were paid. The cases were heard by Stipendiary Magistrate R. M. McGusty with Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill prosecuting and L. W. Patmore of this city defending. Provincial Constable William Smith was instrumental in bringing the cases to trial.

PLANE FROM Q. C. ISLANDS

FLIGHT LIEUTENANT A. H. HULL ARRIVED HERE LAST NIGHT WITH U.S. 2 L FLYING BOAT

Having made the return journey from Queen Charlotte Islands in an hour and forty-five minutes, Flight Lieutenant A. H. Hull and G. B. Taylor, mechanic, arrived on their H. S. 2L flying boat last evening at 7 o'clock. Owing to the presence of so many logs at Seal Cove, a landing was made at Digby Island. It was on this boat that General McNaughton, General Officer commanding Military district No. 1, arrived in Prince Rupert last week.

Flight Lieutenant Hull is making inquiries and gathering evidence regarding the recent flying fatality near Stadales. The court of inquiry will be held in Vancouver on the conclusion of the flight to consider the evidence. Lieutenant Hull was for several years a frequent visitor to Prince Rupert when on fishery patrol. His machine last evening was the first plane of the season to fly over Prince Rupert.

PIONEER OF CITY PASSES

DANIEL McNEILL, STRICKEN A FEW DAYS AGO, SUCCEDED IN HOSPITAL YESTERDAY

A Prince Rupert pioneer of some twenty years standing passed away yesterday afternoon in the Prince Rupert General Hospital in the person of Daniel McNeill, for the past several years nightwatchman at the Albert & McCassey dock and prior to that watchman at the Westholme Theatre. The late Mr. McNeill collapsed on the street a few days ago with what is believed to have been a heart attack.

Well over sixty years of age and of Scottish descent, deceased came here from Nova Scotia in the very early days of the city. He became very well known and was esteemed by many friends. He was also a great friend of many children, his bachelor's quarters on Ninth Avenue West having been a popular resort where swings and other amusement were provided for youngsters. The late Mr. McNeill was a Roman Catholic and a member of the Knights of Columbus organization. He was unmarried, surviving relatives including a sister, Mrs. Neidecker of North Vancouver, who will come here for the funeral.
