LORD INCHCAPE Airplane to Carry Eighty People Across Atlantic in 24 Hours is to be Built in Next Four Months

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 .- Completion of the tests on the model of a seaplane designed to carry sixty passengers across the North Atlantic in 24 hours was announced today by O'Connor of the Transatlantic Airways Inc.

Probably the first plane will be completed in four months and will be propelled by eight motors, two of which are held in reserve in case of anything happening to the others.

The design of the plane is such that if forced to land on the water it will be seaworthy even in a storm.

There are some who have not been heard this city. The price paid is reported to from since their entries were received. Others took out receipt books and have have been a hundred and fifty thousand not yet reported. As is stands this afternoon there are not as many active dollars. RESOLUTIONS not yet reported. As is stands this afternoon there are not as many active candidates as there are prizes. It is to ascertain just who is at work and who is not that the request to report is made. In the event that it is impracticable is not that the request to report is made. In the event that it is impracticable for any one to report in person then the report should be made by telephone or letter. We want to know of your progress in the Campaign, and by talking with REGINA, Aug. 1.—At the meeting of you, we may be able to make helpful suggestions to you.

There are two districts and two sets of prizes. Each district constitues a of Canada assembled here, a resolution separate campaign with a car and full set of prizes assured each. If you have entered and have not started you campaign in earnest there is no better time than today to make the start.

With subscribers calling and paying their subscriptions over the counter in the business office of The News, there is every reason to believe candidates have not yet got down to work. It is evident that if candidates were busy, calling on subscribers and prospects, there would be no need for the subscribers to come to the office. As it is, unless the subscribers specifically asks that votes on the subscription be credited to some particular candidate, no candidate benefits. Those who intend to bring their subscription to the office for some one entered at 10.60 and 5c. should ask for the Campaign Manager and turn the subscription in for their Cora, 4,700 lbs., to Booth Fisheries

Spokane Men Here in Regard to Securing Site for New Sawmill to Cut Ecstall River Timber

Representatives of the Spokane interests that are commencing the logging of spruce limits in the Ecstall and Falls River valleys have during the past few days been looking over possible sites at Seal Cove and other parts of the city where it is planned to erect a mill to cut the logs.

The logging operations are in charge of George Scott of this city and it is probable that one of the sites at Seal Cove may be chosen for the mill, it being desired to have it situated both on rail and water.

Today the people are up the Ecstall looking over the work at the limits and it is expected that beofre leaving the city they will have come to some definite decision in regard to the site for
