KETCHIKAN BEAT ANYOX

BASEBALL GAME WAS ONE SIDED THE SCORE BEING 13 to 0 FAVOR OF ALASKANS

It's probably true that they play baseball down in Anyox, British Columbia, but some jinx stood over the heads of the Canadian delegration when they locked horns with a picked Ketchikan nine in the feature game of the Fourth of July celebration, says the Ketchikan Chronicle. The observers stopped counting errors along in the early innings, although Ketchikan had but one tallied against it, and that wasn't serious. The end of the game found Anyox shut out, 13 to 0.

Abby Garn and Lou Harris made a couple of good plays, but aside from these the game was as drab as the 1928 political conventions.

Smith was on mound for the whole game, giving the visitors so few hits that it was largely a matter of three men up to retire the side. The hit column wouldn't show much for Ketchikan either, as the countless Anyox errors put the local men on bases time after time.

Stolen bases also would help tell the story of Ketchikan's victory. All in all, the game was clean cut, even if lopsided. Smith's overthow to first put a man on in one instance, but without disastrous effect, and it marked the only tally against local players. The Ketchikan team worked together almost like a machine, and several difficult plays were pulled with precision that brought the applause of the fans.

It wasn't until the seventh inning that Anyox began putting some support behind a pitcher who was letting them hit quite a few. In the seventh and eighth the Canadian retired Ketchikan in one, towo and three order.

The lineups were, for Ketchikan—Boyer lf, Bennett, rf and 2b, Harris 1b and 2b, Anthony 3b, Garn ss, Miller cf, Fraiser c, Smith p, Kubley 1b Sharp rf. For Anyox—McCall cf, Valentine, p, McDougall 3b, Anderson lf, Clenoski 2b, McDodnald ss, McLellan c, Hardy 1b, Whitehouse rf, Muser p and 3b.

SPORT CHAT

The 1928 production by Mr. Rex, of Tex, Rickard, his forthcoming battle of the century, is only three weeks distant and the situation is so fraught with possibilities of another financial flop, that Mr. Rex is doing his own screaming. All over the country the bottom appears to be falling out of the cauliflower industry. The Walker-Hudkins, the Godfrey-Risko, the McLarnin-Mandell and Senor Fugazy's Ebbets Field shows turned out to be ruinous from the standpoint of expected profits for the promoters. It is all very well to sock an opponent on his chin inside the ring; it is quite another thing to sock promoters severely on the pocketbook. They are unaccustomed to taking that sort of punishment and have no desire whatever to become hardened to it. There are few, if any, Jack Allens in the louder and funnier fight centres. One of the largest news gathering agencies in the country recently cancelled its reservation at Gene Tunney's training camp. Few of the big papers of New York have their men on that assignment. There aren't any in Mr. Tom Heeney's Fairhaven camp. It may be just too bad, indeed, but the advance publicity on this coming engagement is very decidedly negative.

If it develops that Mr. Rickard takes another on the pocket with his "big shot," I find myself unable to break into tears. I could shed only crocodile drops for Mr. Tunney, who is financially associated with Tex in this promotion. In two shots at Dempsey, Mr. Tunney made enough to keep all the wolves in Wolfville away from his study doors. Mr. Rickard has a yacht, a summer home in Miami and what the boys call a cool million in Fifth avenue banks. I could drop the odd tear for Heeney if it were not for the fact that he has surrounded himself with two ageing gentlemen of Fistiana who are determined to accept most of his ring earnings as fast as they accrue. There seems, after all, nothing for the principals in this brawl to do but to grin and go through with it, no matter how painful it may be to their respective bankrolls. Those of us on the outside can sit back and say heartily, in the immortal words of that manager of pugilistic hams, "Go on and fight, it can't hurt us."

YANKEES SUFFER REVERSE AGAIN

LOSE SECOND GAME OF DOUBLE-HEADER TO BROWNS—CARDINALS STRETCH LEAD IN NATIONAL

(Special to Daily News)

NEW YORK, July 10New York Yankees again suffered reverse yesterday at the hands of the St. Louis Browns who are proving the stiffest obstacle they have met up with so far this season. After winning the first by a score of 4 to nil, the Yanks went to pieces and dropped the second game of a double-header to the Brownies by 12 to 6. The Philadelphia Athletics won over the Cleveland Indians 14-4 and are now eleven-and-a-half games behind the Yankees. Chicago White Sox won over Washington Senators and these two teams are now tied for fifth place. Boston and Detroit settled their dispute for the cellar for the time being at least when the former won both games of a double-header from the Tigers.

St. Louis Cardinals stretched their lead in the National League to four-and-a-half games by winning from Boston while the New York Giants were being trimmed by the Pittsburg Pirates. Cincinnati Reds won a close game 5 to 4 from the Phillies and are now but half a game behind the Giants for second place. Brooklyn rose to within half a game of fourth place by winning from the Chicago Cubs.

Yesterday's scores:

CITY DECIDES TO REPAIR GROUNDS

Gyro Equipment to Be Regularly Inspected with View to Keeping It In Order

Ald. Dibb inquired at last night's council meeting as to what was being done to maintain and repair the equipment in the various playgrounds established in the city by the Gyro Club. He understood that damage was being done, of which no notice was being taken. He referred to the fact that the club was establishing still another playground on Acropolis Hill and urged that some committee should have these grounds under supervision to ensure that they were properly cared for. He suggested that regular inspections be made and repairs made from time to time.

Mayor McMordie stated that the city engineer had informed him that all the damage had been repaired. He agreed that the grounds should be inspected and kept in shape. The matter was referred to the Board of Works with this end in view.
