SMITHERS

The annual basket picnic of the Smithers United Church Sunday School is being held this afternoon at the Lake Kathlyn pavilion.

Mrs. M. W. Hamilton of Prince Rupert has been awarded the lease of the Lake Kathlyn pavilion for the summer by the local Automobile Club.

Vernon Eby of Smithers was the winner of a handsome hope chest raffled recently in Prince George.

The Smithers Board of Trade has endorsed a resolution from the Prince George Board seeking to encourage the grading of all products of the district going on the market.

Farmers of the district are organizing to overcome the serious loss suffered by the Smithers Fall Fair when the main exhibition hall collapsed during the winter and a bee is being held today with a view to rebuilding the structure.

Mrs. K. E. Birnie has reopened her catering establishment at Lake Kathlyn for the summer.

Tampering with private property at Lake Kathlyn has been reported to the police which is keeping a close watch for offenders.

Mrs. Stanley Bennett and family left at the end of last week for Chilliwack where they will make their future home. Mr. Bennett is now stationed at Boston Bar in the service of the Canadian National Railways.

B. F. Stewart has purchased from J. S. Kennedy, who is now located in Bellingham, the building on Main St. now occupied by A. L. Evitt.

Lorne Kenney and Miss Grace Andrews motored down from Prince George to spend the week-end visiting with local friends.

A department of public works road crew is now engaged in preparing a new route on the main highway near Beament, eliminating several grades and two dangerous crossings. A new bridge has been put across China Creek.

Joe Williams returned to Prince Rupert on Wednesday after having spent a couple of days visiting with local friends.

NEW HAZELTON

The Catholic Church at Hagwilget last Sunday held larger congregations than had ever previously packed the edifice. It was the occasion of the celebration by Father Joseph Allard, O.M.I. of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination into the priesthood. Bishop E. M. Buncz, O.M.I. of Prince Rupert assisted with the services.

Provincial Andrew Fairbairn of Telkwa has been relieving in Hazelton during the absence south of Constable G. A. Wyman as a witness in the Sankey trial at New Westminster.

In a few days wild roses in this district will be in full bloom. Then the countryside will be at its best.

Rev. Mr. Fleming of New York will arrive in Hazelton about the first of next month to succeed Rev. J. H. Young, who is transferred to Vancouver Island, as local pastor of the United Church.

C. W. Walters, a recent arrival here, has purchased a block of land in New Hazelton, adjoining the Hagwilget reserve and is having it cleared and a house built before he and his family move onto it.

A large party of local people visited the Mohawk mine on Four Mile Mountain last Sunday.

Mr. Benson of Seattle, a mining engineer, has been making an inspection of the Silver Cup mine on Nine Mile Mountain for a group of investors who have bought stock in the property.

The first car to make the trip from Vancouver to New Hazelton this season was that of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Millichamp who arrived last week and proceeded to Terrace and Prince Rupert.

Al McDougall and Roy Smith of the Yukon Telegraph line are in Hazelton for their annual holiday.

Miss Joy Ford arrived at the end of last week from Vernon to join the staff of the Hazelton Hospital as night supervisor. She is a graduate of the local institution.

Mrs. Matheison on Tuesday celebrated her fourth anniversary as lady superintendent of the Hazelton Hospital. She treated the members of the staff to an auto ride around the country in the evening.

Charles A. Bramble of Vancouver, representative of Old Country capital, was here last week to make an examination of the Silver Standard mine. The tunnel still being full of ice, he proceeded to Bulkley Valley points and will be back here at a later date.

The Comet mine on Four Mile Mountain is temporarily closed down.

Development work on the Mohawk mine on Four Mile Mountain is proceeding satisfactorily.

Miss Georgina Hunter, R.N. and Miss Anne Castell, R.N., of the Prince Rupert General Hospital nursing staff, who are holidaying at Lake Kathlyn, were guests of Miss Mary Castell of the Hazelton Hospital staff for a couple of days last week.

Hazelton expects visits from both Premier J. D. McLean and Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie this week in the course of the provincial election campaign. The Premier will be here Friday.

Mrs. H. E. Thornton left last week to spend a couple of weeks in Prince George.

Work on the Silver Cup mine is progressing very favorably in both tunnels. The ore shoot is still strong and shows no signs of petering out. A large tonnage of ore is being developed.

Employees of the Yukon Telegraph line have made some good catches of fur during the past winter for which they are being paid satisfactory prices.

Hazelton Indians are erecting a large hall in which to hold their festivities, the old hall having outlived its usefulness.
