BIRTHDAY OF CAPT. OLIVER

VETERAN COAST MISSIONARY CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY UNDER AUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES

SKIDEGATE, March 24.—The home of Captain William Oliver of Sandspit, Queen Charlotte Islands, was the scene of a delightful surprise party on Monday evening, March 19, the occasion being the eightieth birthday of the captain. Forty-three guests gathered to mark the celebration, residents of Queen Charlotte City, Skidegate, Skidegate Mission, and Sandspit. A birthday cake of ample proportions decorated with 80 candles occupied the centre of the table. After refreshments had been served, two little boys presented the captain with a beautiful sweater coat which he at once put on to the delight of the company.

An illuminated address artistically designed in black and gold had been prepared by Mr. Martin of the forestry department at Queen Charlotte City. This was read by Rev. R. C. Scott who is the captain's companion in missionary labors. The address expressed the love and esteem of the residents in the scattered communities of the Islands, for Capt. Oliver, and voiced their appreciation of the steadfast loyalty of Capt Oliver to the principles and teachings of the master whom he loves and serves. Greetings were conveyed to Captain Oliver by Mr. John Barge of Queen Charlotte City. Rev. J. Gillett of Massett, B.C. (Indian agent) conveyed the felicitations of the Anglican Church and Rev. J. H. Matthews of Skidegate Indian Mission spoke on behalf of the Indian Mission Workers and of the Indians to whom the captain has ever been a counsellor and friend. Mr. Gordon Eade of Queen Charlotte City spoke very feelingly of Captain Oliver's influence in his life.

Rev. R. C. Scott brought to the assembled company anecdotes from the captain's experiences that shed a beautiful light on a life that has been filled with labors abundant. A program of community singing, pianoforte solo by Miss Dorothy Barge, recitation by Mrs. Pitt Turner of Skidegate, and selections by the Queen Charlotte Orchestra brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

ENJOYABLE DANCE QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY RECENTLY

SKIDEGATE, March 24.— A very enjoyable dance was given at Queen Charlotte City in Barge's Hall under the auspices of the board of trade. Those in charge were G. D. Beattie, Roy McKenzie, M. Newman, C. Miller, J. Martin and G. Jolliff.

The refreshment committee consisted of Mrs. Roy McKenzie, Mrs. J. Gillespie and Miss M. Beattie.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and all enjoyed the event. Among the Skidegate and east coast visitors for the occasion were Captain G. Leary, Miss J. Haan, Miss P Molitor; Mrs. E. C. Stevens; Miss E. M. Stevens, Miss D. Richardson and Mrs. R. G. Emmerson.

MISSIONARY ADVOCATE VISIT PRINCE RUPERT IN EARLY PART OF MAY

Miss Laura K. Pelton, a representative of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, is expected to arrive here early in May at which time she plans to address a gathering of women of the local church and possibly may take one of the services the first Sunday in May.

Miss Jessie B. White, in writing to tell of the plans, says that last year the society oversubscribed its allocation of $6,000 by $139.63 and this year an effort is being made to extend the interest in this branch of the church work by stressing the desirability of membership and organizing new auxiliaries.

WHIST DRIVE GIVEN SONS OF ST. GEORGE AT METROPOLE HALL

A whist drive under the auspices of the St. George's Society was held last night in the Metropole Hall with C. J. Norrington in charge. Prize winners were:

Ladies—1, Mrs. J. Ratchford; 2, Mrs. Griffiths.

Men's—1, F. J. Fuller; 2, J. Vierick.

A song by Mrs. Swanson was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Norrington.

SKIDEGATE

P. and J. Haan of Sandspit went as far as Cape St. James last week prospecting for salmon and reported no sign of the fish.

Constable Grant of Port Clements was here recently on departmental business, returning by way of Tlell.

Captain Bert Roberts has installed a new fifteen horsepower Vivian engine in his new troller Flora C.

Captain Bob Dunlop has completed his new troller Nil Desperandum.

J. P. Dover and E. Wiggins of Tlell were visitors here last week. The latter says he made the trip on the hurricane deck of a cayuse.

Rev. James Gillett, Indian agent at Skidegate, spent a week here recently in connection with the Indian department.

Man in the Moon

IF I only were a cat
And could see in the dark,
I'd gossip as I sip my tea
And think it such a lark.

JAKE wants to know why a girl is always drawing attention to her knees by pulling her dress down over them and then letting it come up again immediately.

HON. T. D. Pattullo used to be welcome. We did not mind writing "minister of lands" but now it is a worry to have to write "minister of lands, provincial secretary and chief commissioner of fisheries." However I do not care as long as I do not have to add K.C.B., L.L.D.

YESTERDAY I read in this paper about some man who bought a farm at Terrace and is gone there to make a living off it. Of course he can do it but it sounds queer.

I BOUGHT a farm at Terrace
And sought to make it pay,
And then one day I wakened up
And hied me quick away.

I bought a farm at Terrace
And felt the 'squitos bite,
But yet in spite of everything
Decided to sit tight.

Yes, life is life at Terrace
Where fruit you get galore
With taxes low I like it so
I'll leave it nevermore.

LONG IN FINE BILLIARD FORM

SET UP NEW CITY RECORD FOR POINTS PER SESSION IN BEATING HAMILTON LAST EVENING

Setting a new record of 8.9 for average points per session in a tournament billiard game in Prince Rupert, W. H. Long, holder of last year's city senior championship title, last night eliminated James Hamilton by a score of 500 to 342 from the series this year. Long put up the best game many billiard observers have ever seen him play and Hamilton, though in good form himself, never had a chance. Hamilton's average per innings was 6.1. High breaks by Long were 54, 49 and 41, and for Hamilton 35, 31 and 30. The time of the match was one hour and forty-five minutes. Jack Judge was referee, A. L. Patterson scorer and R. Young marker.

The senior and junior tournaments will be continued next week.

SPORT CHAT

The Cluculz Rod and Gun Club is the name of a new sporting organization which was brought into being in Prince George this week. The object of the club is to utilize the fishing and hunting offered in Cluculz Lake and vicinity. It is also planned to put in accommodation for sportsmen at the lake. A piece of land is to be purchased upon which a club building will be erected as well as a boat house. A number of boats will also be placed on the lake for the use of club members. The club has got away to a good start, its membership including most of the anglers and hunters of Prince George. The new organization promises to be the most influential rod and gun club in the central interior section of the province. Officers are as follows: honorary president, H. G. Perry, M.L.A.; president, F. D. Taylor; secretary, Cyril Dupre; treasurer, Frank Whitmore; executive, J. Paschal, W. Sherman, V. Engstrom, Judge H. E. A. Robertson and David McDonald.
