REGIMENT WON SOCCER GOME

SHUT OUT GRAND TERMINALS LAST NIGHT BY SCORE OF 3 TO NIL

The delightful uncertainty of football was once more illustrated last evening when, though playing with only ten men, Regiment won over the Terminals three goals to nil.

Terminals were without Warren, Chenoski, Angus MacDonald, and Spiro Gurvich for whom Burdett, Howe, Harris and Dido Gurvich substituted. Regiment was without Ross, Baptie, Bye and Doherty but Frank Russell turned out and Alf Hodgkinson and Allan Davis also played.

Winnig the toss, Terminals played uphill and their forwards combined nicely. Regiment defence played strongly and did not let Terminals settle down. Regiment forwards were more dangerous around goal but their first goal by Allan Davis was the result of a mistake by Gurvich who failed to clear a high dropping centre. Terminals returned to the attack but Brand was safe. He cleared a fine shot of Strachan's, and Dickens and Howe were unable to beat him. Then a scramble at the other end left Wilson with nothing to do but put the ball into an open goal and Regiment was two goals up. A nice play by Russell gave Tinker a chance of which he took full advantage to beat Gurvich with a fine shot and the soldiers were three goals up.

In the second half Terminals pressed continuously but Regiment defence played like fiends and, with their share of luck, kept their goal intact. Brand saved splendidly again and again, two of his best being a penalty taken by Currie and a corner kick by Burdett. Currie went centre forward but could not get through. Strachan fired a beauty just too high. A hectic scramble in the goal kept the spectators on edge for a time but shots were blocked and stopped in some way or another and no score was registered. Russell and Wilson occasionally made good headway through neat football and the latter missed a good chance when he shot high over after beating Skinner. Terminals pressed to the end but Regiment held its lead to run out winners three goals to nil.

TEAMS

Regiment—Brand; Lambe, Norrington, A. Hodgkinson, Kelsey, F. Hodgkinson; Wilson, Russell, Tinker, A. Davis.

Terminals—D. Gurvich; Skinner, Donald; Hill, Currie Harris; Harrison, Strachan, Dickens, Burdett, Howe.

BEST PLAYERS

For Regiment Brand played a wonderful game in goal and on form is the best goalie in town. Norrington and Lambe at back tackled strongly and never gave the opposing forwards a chance to settle. They were in fine form. The Hodgkinson brothers as wing halves turned in their best games of the season and Regiment owe a lot to them. Kelsey was very good at times but was obviously tired. Russell's return to the forward line had a great effect and he gave Wilson numerous clever passes. Tinker got a fine goal and Davies showed glimpses of his old form.

Terminals seem to find it hard to beat the Regiment. Gurvich was at fault in the first goal but otherwise did well Skinner was a tower of strength in defence and Donald did well. Currie was the pick of the halves and gave his forwards many openings. As centre forward he was good too but could not get that elusive goal. Hill played his usual fast game. Harris improved towards the end but was up against a clever wing in Russell and Wilson. The forwards tried hard but with little success. Their combination at times was very neat but they lacked the final punch. Their failure was due to the great power of the Regiment defence.

George Russell refereed impartially and A. Clapperton and F. Hunter were linesmen.

A fair crowd of spectators got lots of excitement.

CHEVROLET
Price puts it in the lowest class
Quality in the highest

THE "Bigger and Better" Chevrolet is motordom's most striking illustration of the difference between "cheapness' and "low-price".

Chevrolet is low-priced, beyond doubt . . lower-priced than ever before in all Chevrolet history. But, so far from being "cheapened", Chevrolet has been improved—in appearance, in performance, in value! If quality, instead of price, were the means by which cars were classified, Chevrolet would take its place in the higher ranks.

Everything about the "Bigger and Better" Chevrolet . . from the big, luxurious Fisher Bodies with their smart, stylish lines, to the powerful Chevrolet engine with its countless new refinements . . everything bespeaks a high standard of quality that has never been sacrificed for any price advantage.

The Chevrolet you buy is, first of all, a bigger and better car. That it is also an outstandingly low-priced car is an additional important advantage, gained through Chevrolet's volume production and its association with General Motors.

Call around and drive this Quality, Low-Priced car today. C28-7-28C

The G.M.A.C. . . General Motors' own deferred payment plan affords the most convenient and economical way of buying your Chevrolet on time.

ALF HARDING READY TO MEET DIX HERE

Popular Local Boy Volunteers For Match On Open-Air Show Card During Exhibition

Alf Harding has volunteered to meet Madison Dix of Seattle in the open-air boxing tournament which will be held here during Fair Week. He says he has never backed an inch from any one and does not expect to do so from Dix. Meanwhile, Alf is training faithfully and promises that he will have a change in his style the next time he appears in the ring.

SPORT CHAT

The Olympic Games start nominally today though the only sport will be weight-lifting. Athletics commence on Sunday when the first and second rounds of the 100 metres will be run. Canadian entries in the 100 metres are Williams, of Vancouver, Fitzpatrick, Adams and Hester. The semi-finals and finals will be run on Monday and local interest is all centered on the performance of the Vancouver boy Williams. He has twice equalled the Olympic record for 100 metres but will be up against his biggest test on Sunday and Monday. Reports from Amsterdam regarding the condition of the running tracks are not encouraging though the Dutch claim that all will be in good shape for the events.

SOCIAL LAST NIGHT IN UNITED CHURCH

New Deaconess Welcomed and Departing One Is Farewelled.

At the United Church last evening a very enjoyable social evening was held as a welcome to the new deaconess, Miss Elliott.

There was community singing under Rev. A. Wilson and Miss Way accompanying. The minister then extended to Miss Elliott a hearty welcome on behalf of himself, the board and the congregation. Miss Elliott replied in a happy manner, her recollections of various experiences being most entertaining. Rev. A. Wilson sang "The Curfew," very pleasingly, Mrs. Wilson accompanying.

To Miss I. Haddock, who is leaving on a year's vacation, Mrs. John Manson and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick made a presentation of a handbag and a sum of money subscribed by members of the church and their friends. Mrs. Manson referred to the large part in the life of the church Miss Haddock had filled, in her work with the ladies, among the girls and the children. Always ready to help. Miss Haddock's work was a most unselfish nature and her watchwork was service. The speaker also referred to her successes as "Aunt Susan," and in the other plays put put on for church purposes. Miss Haddock who was entirely taken by surprise replied with difficulty but with sincere appreciation of the beautiful gift with its useful contents. She had enjoyed her work and had only been able to do it because of the help given by all members.

Rev. A. Wilson took the opportunity to add a few remarks on the help that he as pastor received from Miss Haddock. He associated himself with all that had already been said, and assured the recipient that she had the best wishes of all in the church and many outside for a most enjoyable and beneficial holiday.

J. S. Wilson then sang a couple of songs, being accompanied by Miss Way, after which refreshments were served.
