BRANTS IN CITY POLICE COURT THIS MORNING

Seven drunks were either fined or sentenced to jail terms by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning. They were the accumulation of celebrants from over the Easter holi- elected.

Fred Gun-a-noot of Hazelton, son of the famous Simon, pleaded guilty. He said he was given only one drink aboard a boat upon which he was preparing to embark. In any case, he came up-town again and ran foul of Dominion Constable A. J. Watkinson. A fine of 814 and $3.50, with the option of fourteen days in jail, was imposed on Gun-a-

Nels Elison, bespectacled, admitted sheepishly that it was his second offence. He said that he lived at Buicdale where he was working. The court suggested that it would pay him to get back to work. There was nothing for the magistrate to do but fine him $50 or 30 days.

Oscar Bye pleaded guilty to his thiroffence. In response to a suggestion by Sergeant Hannah, he declared that he could quit drinking without being interdicted. The youth was sentenced t thirty days without option.

Charles Edgar, Jack Collins and Walter McLaren were each fined $25, with the option of thirty days in durance vile.
