SPORT CHAT

It looks like a Happy New Year for most of the big moguls of sportdom. A few upsets may be lurking in ambush, but for the most part the campaign of 1928 gets under way with the principal champions apparently more strongly entrenched than any group in recent years. Take Bobby Jones, Helen Wills and Rene Lacoste, for example-all are young, in their early twenties; but also just about as supreme in their special fields of action as any title-holders have been in a blue moon.

Jones has acquired the habit of lifting at least two major golf crowns a year. Since he has decided to partici-Valentin Dairy | pate only in the U.S. open and amateur tournaments in 1928, it will be custournaments in 1928, it will be customary to find him a top-heavy favorlite to take either or both.
