CINCINNATI NOW HAS TWO GAME LEAD IN NATIONAL LEAGUE-YANKS AGAIN BEAT ATHLETICS

(Special to Daily News)

NEW YORK, May 29. - Cincinnati games by winning the first game of a series from the running up Chicago Cubs by a score of 2 to 11. It was a hard fought match and the only one that was played in the league yesterday. The Cubs now have a margin of but one game over the New York Giants for second place.

New York Yankees continued the American League farce with an 11-4 victory over Philadelphia Athletics in a loose game. The Athletics, as a result of several reverses of late, have now dropped to within one game of the third place Cleveland Indians. St. Louis Browns, by winning over Chicago White Sox, took fourth place from Boston which lost to Washington Sen-
