HYPNOTISM CHARGED MURDER CASE

EARL GODFREY'S PLANE WRECKED ON RIVER SHALLOWS

Godfrey's Plane Struck Shallow Part Of River And Pontoons Broke off in the rescue plane yesterday visited Commander Godfrey and Sergeant Graham near Carcajou 200 miles down the Peace River. He reported the two as busy salvaging the scapiane engine.

Flight Commander Gordon and Wing Commander Breadner would say nothing for publication before leaving by train for Edmonton last night beyond repeating that dense smoke caused the flyers to come down on the river. Unfortunately a shallow spot was struck, the pontoon breaking off and the plane sliding into deep water.

Hypnotic Instluence On Prisoner Charged In Exacting Confession .In Murder Case Now Proceeding

EDMONTON, September 26.—There was a decided change in the complexion of the Booher murder trial when Chief Justice Simmons ruled out of evidence the confession secured from Vernon Booher after he had been confronted by a gun which Dr. Langster, the Vienna criminologist had discovered on a far: near Manvil'e and with which the prisoner is alleged to have slain his mother, brother and two hired men. The presiding judge thought the onus was upon the crown to prove that Booher was not under hypnotic influence as was claimed by the defense at the time the confession was give.n
