MACS FEATURE APPLE MARKET

Duchess from Terrace is also Proving Popular — Oranges Going up and Vegetables Down

Luscious McIntosh Reds, the King of the apple kingdom, feature the local fruit market today and are selling at $2.15 to $3.10 per case, according to grade. Limited quantities of Duchess apples from Terrace are also being received. They are of splendid size and taste and are proving quite popular. Provided they are used fast, they prove excellent fruit.

With fall coming on, there is a general softening in the vegetable market with certain kinds going off while others appear.

The orange market is stiffening, and 40c oranges which are still to be obtained though they are small, will soon disappear for a couple of months until the new citrus crop starts moving in.

The egg market continues its seasonal advance, local new laid drawing 70c per dozen now.
