LACROSSE HERE FOR THE FAIR

NATIVE TEAM COMING FROM AIYANSH TO PLAY THE LOCAL BOYS IN CITY

PARADE OF PIONEERS

Boys' Band Engaged for Special Music For Which They Are Now Practising

The Fair Board held their regular weekly meeting last evening when further arrangements were made in connection with the Exhibition which commences on September 11. There were present M. P. McCaffery, who presided, P. H. Linzey, J. D. Fraser, G. E. Gulich, H. Steen, W. H. Sherman (jr., A. J. Prudhomme, Joe Brown, George Casey, and Mrs. Vance, secretary-treasurer.

A lacrosse attraction will be the appearance of the Aiyansh Native Lacrosse team, champions of the Nishga League of the Naas River district. The series will be a two-game one with total goals to count. Local lacrosse players are already training and this series promises to be one of the big sport attractions of the Exhibition week. Dick Woods trained this team some years ago and states that they were good then and are probably much better now. Fred Stork has donated a trophy for the series which will be known as the championship of Northern B.C.

Another attraction will be the Parade in which the pioneers of Prince Rupert are taking part with F. W. Hart leading their procession in a covered wagon.

There will also be two prizes offered for the best comic person in the parade whether on horseback or on foot.

An ex-cavalry rider will display his ability in trick riding and will ride two and three horses at one time.

The Boys' Band have been engaged for the musical side of the program and have already commenced special practices. This will be their first public appearance since their return from their trip to Edmonton and those who have not heard them recently will be very agreeably surprised at their improved playing.

LEFT TO TAKE COURSE IN NAVAL TRAINING ESQUIMALT STATION

To take a special course at Naval Headquarters, Esquimalt, Lieutenant Walter Hume, commanding the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, left on yesterday afternoon's C.N.R. steamer Prince Charles. Mr. Hume who will be away for three weeks had with him M. Harris and W. Donald members of the local unit of the R.C.N.V.R. who will also undergo a course in training. This will include a trip on the H. M. Canadian destroyer, Vancouver, the most recent addition to Canada's navy and which visited Prince Rupert last month at the same time as the cruiser Durban was in port.

For their opening fixture game in the Gilhuly Cup this evening Terminals will field the following team: Gurvich, Skinner, Howe; MacDonald, Currie, Hill; Harrison Strachan Dickens, Burdett and Chenoski. Reserve— Lunbie. The Thistles will select their team from the following players: Slocombe, J. Murray, A. Haig, S. Erskine, R. Woods, T. Haddon, Strachan, J. Currie, Ed. Smith, A. Mitchell, W. Mitchell, J. Farquhar, J. Campbell, T. Bussanich, Jas. McKay, and Dyer.

PARTY GOING SILVER CUP

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS BEING CARRIED OUT AT HAZELTON MINE

S. M. Woods is a visitor from New Hazelton on business connected with the Silver Cup Mining property located there. Mr. Woods is taking a party of men with him who will be employed in extensive operations that are being undertaken. Plans call for the construction of a tram line that will connect the property with a road which is being built from New Hazelton. A concentrator is also being erected and a mill is already unde reonstruction.

SWEDISH WEDDING AT AMBROSE AVENUE HOME

Miss Jenny Svendsen of Oslo Becomes Bride of Gunnar Selvig

A pretty wedding took place at 7:30 last night at the home of the groom's brother Thor, Ambrose Ave., when Gunnar Selvig, merchant of thi scity, son of J. Selvig, First Ave., took to wife Miss Jenny Svendsen of Oslo, Norway, the ring ceremony being used according to Swedish custom, Rev. John Hansen officiating. The bride was brought into the room by the groom's father while all the company sang.

Following the ceremony, supper was served, only close friends of the contracting parties being present.

Miss Svendsen, who has been for a number of years bookkeeper in a flour store in Olso, arrived here only a day or two ago. The young couple will occupy the apartment above the store.

At the final meeting of the Salvation Army rally Wednesday night, prior to the departure of Colonel Joy and others, the visitors were introduced by Major Carruthers of Wrangell. Contributing to the program were Col. Joy, who led the singing of several numbers of his own compositions, Miss Marjorie Joy who read lessons and Dorothy Joy who rendered vocal solos. Mrs. (Colonel) Joy gave the address of the evening. Ensign and Mrs. Joyce sang a vocal duet. Others taking part were Captain and Mrs. Yarlett of the Glenvowell Mission at Hazelton and A. E. Copping, journalist. The crowd attending the open-air service previous to the sing-song in the hall was the largest that has assembled for such an occasion.

PLANS TO HUNT BIG GAME WITH BOW AND ARROW

PARTY HERE FROM SEATTLE IN SMALL OUTBOARD MOTOR EN ROUTE ALASKA

From Seattle to Skagway in an eighteen foot boat propelled by a 16 horsepower Evinrude and thence to Admiralty Island to hunt big game with bows and arrows is the little game of R. L. Haines, his wife and Earl Varney, all of Seattle. They arrived here this morning looking fit and enjoying the trip hugely.

Mr. Haines explained that his boat made thirteen or fourteen miles an hour and that he came in this morning from Butedale, arriving at quarter to eleven. They use a gallon every half hour.

He says they had bad weather at Cape Caution this side of Queen Charlotte Sound and very nearly met their end then. They left Seattle July 1 and he thinks they must have travelled 2,500 miles in the six weeks they have been away. He is representing the Pacific Motorboat and the Seattle P. I. and at Ketchikan will take on a moving picture outfit which will be used in Alaska.

The party will remain here a couple of days.

A party of English Public School boys numbering forty in charge of Rev. O. H. Woolley, V.C., and Henry Studholm, will arrive in the city on Saturday, August 25 on the train from the east and will continue south on the C. P. R. steamer the same evening.
