RICHBURGH ALONE DROVE IN SIX RUNS IN FIRST THREE INNINGS

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.-With Richburg alone driving in six runs in the first three innings with a homer, a double and a triple, Boston found the Cardinals easy yesterday. The Giants were in a worse fix, their former mate Artie Nehf pitching Chicago to victory.

The Phillies mistook themselves for the Athletes in Cincinnatti and piled up 22 hits for 13 runs.

Waite Hoyt turned in a strong game against Chicago for the Yankees and this more than the victory itself encouraged Miller Huggins, desperate after two defeats by Detroit, to wreak vengeance on them to the tune of 18 to 6.
