

Economy and Convenience in the new Fairbanks Globe Valve

The new Fairbanks Globe Valve has a disc holder that can be replaced quickly and easily-which means a decided saving of time and money. The improvement in design of this valve has been made without sacrificing any of the features that have made Fairbanks Globe Valves famous for their trouble-free service and long life-the best of bronze, more threads always engaged in the bonnet, rounded seat to prevent lodging of sediment and to ensure perfect contact.

POPULAR MASTER OF CANADIAN NATIONAL STEAMER SERVES IN NEW CAPACITY

Shortly after the departure of the Canadian National steamer Prince George from Prince Rupert yesterday ever produced. afternoon, Capt. Harry Nedden was requested by Miss Anna McRae, one of the ship's passengers, and Alfred A Evans, member of the ship's orchestra, to join them in the holy bonds of matri-

The course was immediately altered and the steamer sailed out into Dixon's Entrance, beyond the three mile limit where the ceremony was performed.

In the absence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. McRae of Vancouver, A S. Munro, chief engineer of the vessel, gave the bride away while N. A. McLean, purser, acted as best man. Miss L McRae, sister of the bride, and Miss T. Dinsmore, both of Vancouver, acted as bridesmaids. Little Miss Viola Snyder of Bellingham, Wash., and Master Joe Marple of Los Angeles, acted as flower girl and

After the ceremony a very attractive wedding supper was served in the saloon of the steamer by Chief Stewart A. Ramsay to the assembled passengers, all of whom were witnesses of the very unique wedding.

Miss Hiida Odegaard Became Bride of John Sorvig at Quiet Ceremony Last Evening

The wedding took place quietly last Fevening at 7 o'clock at the Parsonage Rev. John H. Hanson, pastor of St Paul's Lutheran Church officiating, of Miss Hilda Odegaard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Odegaard, Trondhjem, Norway, and John Scrvig, fisherman of the Canadian halibut schooner Takla. Witnesses of the ceremony were Mrs. A. Nelson and Kristian Parkcold, captain of the Takla. The bride arrived only two weeks ago from Norway. The couple are taking up residence on Eighth Avenue West.

This afternoon Mrs. Hanson is entertaining at a tea in the Parsonage in honor of the bridal party.
