

The Bus Driver

Buses have to operate on schedule and we make sure of dependable service by using Champion Spark Plugs.

Champion is the better spark plug because it has an exclusive sillimanite insulator specially treated to withstand the much higher temperatures of the modern high-compression engine. Also a new patented solid copper gasket-seal that remains absolutely gas-tight under high compression. Special analysis electrodes which assure a fixed spark-gap under all driving conditions.

H.M.S. DURBAN WINS FOOTBALL

BLANKED LOCALS BY SCORE OF 4 TO NIL LAST EVENING

Though hardly yet in possession of their land legs, H.M.S. Durban football players last night showed some pretty combination, in which department the locals were glaringly lacking, and were good value for their four to nil win over Prince Rupert All Stars. The local players did some untimely missing but for which they would and should have made a much better showing. Prince Rupert played up hill in the first half. With the advantage of the grade, the sailors made two counters. Baple, for Prince Rupert, shot clear over within eight yards of the goal after W. Mitchell had made him a good pass. Almost immediately after, Baple again offended by hitting the crossbar with a penalty kick. The teams might just as well have crossed over 2 all.

Though Prince Rupert had the bulk of the play in the second half, the locals were unable to finish and, in a few breakaways, the sailors scored two more goals.

The absence of Sammy Curry was felt by the locals. He was under doctor's orders not to play but it is expected he will be on hand for the second game next Tuesday evening. Leading Seaman Payne refereed the match and A. Clapperton and a man from the warship acted as linesmen.

Teams were: H.M.S. Durban—Seaman Kenwell; Signalman Broadfoot and Able Seaman Rees; Able Seaman Williams, Leading Telegraphist Woods and Leading Assistant Pegler; Stoker Taylor, Midshipman Melkiman, Leading Signalman McHardy, Ordinary Seaman Dunlop, and Leading Seaman Payne.

Prince Rupert—H. Corbett; A. Haig and J. Ross; George Hill, T. Haddon and C. Mitchell; J. Strachan, J. Murray, Charlie Baple, W. Mitchell and C. J. Norrington.

While the same team will represent the warship in the second game next Tuesday evening, it is understood Prince Rupert will have a changed line-up.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR WAR CRAFT

GOOD PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR REMAINING DAY OF H.M.S. VISIT

The program for the entertainment of the officers and men of H.M.S. Durban, which is visiting the port, includes a cricket match at 2 o'clock this afternoon and a billiard tournament at 8 p.m. in the Grand Terminal Club.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 the men of the warship will participate in the swimming competition at the annual gala of the Prince Rupert Swimming

RAY CLARK IS FIGHT VICTOR

KNOCKS OUT LOCAL BOY IN SIXTH ROUND AT EXHIBITION HALL LAST NIGHT

GOOD PRELIMINARIES JOHNNY WOODS OF SEATTLE INTRODUCED TO FIGHT FANS AS NEXT CONTENDER

Who is to fight Stoker Percy Lake from H.M.S. Durban on Monday night at the Exhibition Hall, Johnny is a clear cut looking boy with a good reputation and made a good impression. Lake was to have been introduced too but he did not get leave from the warship.

Clark was in the centre of the ring in the second with Dido dancing around the outside and coming in occasionally. They had some heavy exchanges of blighting, Clark concentrating on body blows which were telling on Dido even at this stage. The latter was covering up a good deal. Clark had the best of it.

Dido led off in the third round and Clark gave fair return. Clark was carrying the fight to his opponent and, on one occasion, plunged through the ropes but was back like a shot. Clark was dealing more body punishment and Dido was not returning very strong though he was willing. Clark was fighting very openly, with little attention to defence. His consistent body work won him this round.

Clark was cut of his corner like a pocket in the fourth and darted to Dido's corner almost before the latter was off his stool. There were some fast exchanges. Dido hitting right and left to the head and Clark in a similar manner to the body. There were three fast spurts of infighting, Clark being the better in two at least. Clark planted a long left on Dido's ear and then straight on his nose. Dido was still devoting much of his attention to covering up.

Clark was leading and chasing Dido around the ring in the fifth. Dido was showing obvious signs of tiring from punishment and pace and Clark was looking for an opening. Whenever Dido opened up, Clark punished his body. Dido looking green by now and was doing little in the way of returning.

Clark had worked for an opening and Dido was unable to deny him in the sixth round. It was soon over in the manner described. There could be no dispute over the knockout. Dido had fought gamely but he had met his superior at last. He was a pretty sick boy when they took him away but he at least had the knowledge that he had fought courageously and to the best of his ability.

FINAL WORKOUT OF VISITING BOXERS READY FOR MONDAY

A final workout will take place tonight at the Grand Terminal Club of Stoker Lake of the Durban who is to meet Woods Monday night. He will be there at 5:15.

Woods holds his workout at the same place at 7.

Intense interest is being taken by fight fans in this match and it is expected there will be a record crowd present.

Ben Baxter, caretaker at the C.N.R. station, who has not been in the best of health recently, left on this morning's train for Montreal where he will embark on July 20 aboard the steamer Antonia for a three months' visit to his native home in Yorkshire, England.

Jack Holroyd, with a heart of gold added another to the growing list of trouncings he has received, this time at the hands of Sam Joe, a bitter-eyed native from Ladner. Sam was the heavier and led the pace, dealing heavy punishment into the first round. Same was not so lively in the second round but he was still hitting hard on occasion. Jack, bleeding from the left ear, was holding him off. They were both resting in the third, though the native continued to lead with lessened energy and his lower lip was bleeding. Jack had received a lot of punishment and could not have lasted much longer.

There was no question in giving the decision to Sam Joe who had fought in his socks and no shoes.

Jimmy Sim found more than he could handle in Red Howard of Victoria. Red had the best of what there was, Jimmy spending the most of his time crouching and covering up. What few times he tried, he seldom if ever connected. Jimmy opened up a bit in the second but Red was ready and had the best of some free mixing. Jimmy stopping a lot of heavy one. Red got the best of all exchanges and fairly took the decision.

NOT SO FIERCE—Anybody who said Wild Pete Vestik and Young Norsk, who appeared in a four round semi-final, had a "grudge" evidently didn't know what he was talking about. The two Noraks proved very amiable opponents and did not look to be trying very hard. Vestik, the older, did some dainty dancing around and performed some graceful movements with his hands and arms but just wouldn't go in. As a matter of fact, Wild Pete proved a very tame customer. If he ever hit Norsk, who did all of what little leading and hitting there was, nobody noticed it. Somehow or other, Norsk got a bloody nose in the third. According to schedule, one of them should have laid down and quit in the fourth to satisfy the crowd but they didn't. It was called a draw though Norsk should have been given the decision.

Before the main event, Mr. Woods introduced Johnny Woods of Seattle (who is to fight Stoker Percy Lake from H.M.S. Injury — were still 25 behind and had only three wickets to fall Tydesley and Tate reminded the old stagers of the days when 50 runs an hour was considered a pace for mere stonewallers. The two added 141, of which 124 came in an hour, and then D. R. Jardine gave a fine exhibition in saving the rest from defeat. It was not surprising, therefore, that the Selection Committee have chosen the ten sound England men and given Jardine Hobbs' place for the first with the West Indies.

Today the big sport event in England is shooting. The best marksmen of the Empire are engaged at Hiley and Canadians rank very high among them. At the time of writing it is not known who will win but it is already known that a good many Canadians were in at the finals and that they need never be ashamed of the record they made.
