Yankees Hard Hitting Brought Second Victory In World Series Over St. Louis Cardinals Today

Score of Nine to Three Gives American Leaguers Strangle Hold on Great Baseball Contest for Championship

NEW YORK, October 5.—The Yankees took a strangle hold on the world series by turning back St. Louis Cardinals for the second time, taking today's contest nine runs to three.

As was the case yesterday, the Yankee heavy artillery was responsible for the Cardinal's defeat, eight hits being bunched at the opportune moment.

Pigpras for the Yankees made a poor start but settled down and held the National Leaguers to four hits.

The Yanks drew first blood by scoring three runs in the first inning after Durst, singled, Ruth walked and Gehrig cleaned up with a terrific home run smash into the right field stands.

The Cardinals came back in the second and tied the score on a pass, Harper's double, another couple with Lazzari's error and Maranville's dash to the plate when Douthit hit into a double play.

The Yankees scored four in the third forcing Alexander to the showers. Mitchell succeeded him, holding his opponents to one run for the rest of the game. The records were:

Yankees, 9 runs, 8 hits, 2 errors.
 Cardinals, 3 runs, 4 hits, 1 error.
 Cardinals—0, 3, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0—total, 3.
 Yankees—3, 1, 4, 0, 0, 0, 1, 0—total 9.

McB. Young.
